INTRODUCTORY NOTES FOR WORKING WITH THE COSMIC HISTORY MAGICKAL WORKBOOK OF TRANSFORMATION:

“Cosmic History is a function of the supreme self and a reflection of the cosmos. In comprehending all of its stages of development, you are creating a pathway to a new evolutionary stage.” Ch. 1

The Cosmic History Chronicles, along with this supplemental workbook, provide a spiritual/mental program for the purpose of facilitating your evolution. In order to seriously undertake this whole person/whole system program, you must be willing to accept new programs and change your old programs, with a consequent redefinition of your entire being. Are you ready? These exercises are saturated with the purpose of taking you to the next evolutionary threshold—the noosphere!

What you need to begin: a copy of the Cosmic History Chronicles, Vol. 1, a new journal (8 ½ x 11 unlined is recommended), some basic art supplies like colored pencils, a 13-Moon calendar and the commitment of time to complete the exercises. Suggested supplemental materials include: Dreamspell, Telektonon, 20 Tablets of the Law of Time, Earth Ascending, 7:7::7:7, and Mystery of the Stone). These can be obtained by visiting www.lawoftime.org.

Suggested Use: It is recommended that you begin by first programming the 65 workbook exercises into your 13 Moon, 28-day calendar. This way, you will have an organizational template from which to pace yourself and mark your progress. It is recommended to take one week for each chapter, for a total of 13 weeks—plenty of time to conduct a thorough study. Some exercises take only a few moments, while others may take an entire NET minute (day).

First, read the chapter once through. Then start with the first exercise. After completing all five exercises, which may take you anywhere from a day to a week, go back and re-read the chapter to extract the jewels you have earned for your effort.

Second, you will also notice that there are four precepts for each chapter located in the back of this workbook. It is suggested to draw and meditate on one per day, in addition to your other meditations and studies. You can also use these precepts as a weekly program, by drawing one per week for a total of 52 weeks.

These exercises will change your perceptions about yourself and the nature of reality, opening you to the ever-existing multidimensional universe. But, the exercises will only work if you have a deep desire for transformation and are willing to put the necessary thought and effort into them. Remember that everything can be attained by those willing to make the effort! When you are finished, you will have facilitated evolution by transforming yourself into the new Cosmic Human!

Being that Cosmic History is a whole person/whole systems program, you will want to contemplate every aspect of your life. A good place to start is by reacquainting yourself with your body as an instrument for grounding Cosmic History and awakening to the cosmic mind.

Here are some whole person/system suggestions to take into consideration:

1. Daily Meditation/Mindfulness Training

(even for just for 15 mechanical tick tocks per day)

2. Begin a Regular Psychophysical Discipline

(if you have not already done so) It could be Yoga, Falun Dafa, Tai Chi, etc...Commit to discover the secrets of the universe within your body!

3. Adopting an Evolutionary Diet

Think about every aspect of your body; what you put into it physically and mentally. Consider exercise, diet, breathing, purification and fasting in relation to your mind and body. At minimum, a vegetarian diet is highly recommended to proceed with these practices to ensure pure results. (Remember that through your third-dimensional body, you are building your light body—you certainly want a fractal free, static free light body! Eat light!)

Giving up the eating of all types of meat will do wonders to clean up your physical/mental field, not to mention help out the ecosystem (for one-quarter pound hamburger, 55 square feet of rainforest are destroyed!). Research in this area is highly recommended. A vegan diet is even better on your body and the environment. Raw foods and juices produce optimal results. But the main point is this: The only way to construct a pure light body is to ingest pure, light food, which means abstaining from flesh food. You will have far less problems and more clarified perceptions, not to mention feeling healthier. Remember that we are in the process of letting go and transforming all the different forms of desire engrained in the body as it has been conditioned by the unconscious stream of history.

4. Daily Use of the 13-Moon Calendar

Through consistent daily use of the 13-moon calendar, we are enacting Cosmic History as the template of the harmonic history, day in and day out.

5. Daily practice of the Synchronic Codes (Dreamspell, Telektonon, 7:7::7:7, 20 Tablets of the Law of Time, Rinri Practice, Elder Futhark Runes, etc.)

The synchronic order is defined by the codes, which synchronize our body and mind. If we practice the different levels of these codes on a regular basis, then reality becomes much more clear.

6. Form a Cosmic History Study Group

Working with others helps quicken the evolutionary process. You may also want to think about forming Noospheric Yogic Cell Groups as described on page 73-74 of the Cosmic History Chronicles.

7. Deepen Whatever Spiritual Practices That You May Do

Think that with the Closing of the Cycle in 2012, that this is the greatest opportunity that ever existed for becoming fully conscious of your soul and its bodily vehicle. Now is the time to cultivate your mind. Now is the time to undergo a deep cleansing and purification. Now is the time to find your True Self and maintain your identity inside of yourself. Give up. Let go. Receive! It is all in you, waiting to be awakened and evolved.

CHAPTER 1: WHAT IS COSMIC HISTORY?

Exercise 1: Media Exercise

Purpose: To develop discriminating awareness of the present world construct in order to transcend it.

Re-read pages 3-5. Start where you are – Pick up a current popular newspaper or magazine and look through it carefully, keeping the following questions in mind:

1. What is the newspaper or magazine conveying to you about the world?
2. What does it have to do with your soul? With your evolution or the evolution of the human species?
3. What is it promoting? Look at the ads. Are they promoting machine consciousness or marketing gimmicks? Is this real? Where is this going?

Now write your reflections in your journal. Think about what you are most drawn to: magazine, movies, why? Could it have something to do with the fact that this world is nothing more than a projected hologram? Remember the mind that is reading or watching is the mind that created it. Are your creations simply for amusement or are they serving the purpose of the Creator.

If the newspaper is a daily, weekly or monthly, is it saying anything new from issue to issue? Or is it a closed feedback loop talking to itself? What does the publication already assume about you the reader in their articles? What does this type of information represent from the point of view of the noosphere? If anything.

Now enlarge your fractal scope and apply your observation to different religions or institutions. Think of them as a particular magazine you are reading or program you are watching. Focus on one at a time and ask: Is there anything new happening in this particular institution or religious sect? Is it an evolving system serving all beings equally? Or is it a closed feedback loop? Think of the origin of this particular religion/institution. What was the original purpose of its creation? Where is it going? In what ways is it serving spiritual/mental evolution? Does it promote the idea that the sole purpose of life is to remember God and get back to the soul?

Exercise 2: Field Trip Experiment

Purpose: To recognize different thinking layers in order to transcend them. (Keep in mind that there are an infinite number of “thinking” layers you can tune into at any given time).

Go somewhere public (like a busy restaurant) and sit for long enough to have a well-rounded observation. Listen closely and note what people are talking about. Write snippets of dialog in your journal. Are they in a state of blissful expanded consciousness? Are they talking about money? Are they talking about machines? About other people? Do their words express any consciousness about the planet and what we are doing on it? Are their words and tones congruent with each other or are they merely repeating clichés? Listen for long enough to see if people start saying the same things. Find the patterns.

Now pull back your lens and contemplate the fact that the human species is but a minute speck in the whole of our planet. Then contemplate the fact that the Earth is merely a sphere in space. Think of this in relation to the galactic order. Write down any observations in your journal.

Keep in mind that everything you do should be a purposeful scientific study or experiment. First, you must really understand the intelligence structure of our current world reality in order to collectively reprogram it. One step at a time we are overriding limited programs with programs of Eternity.

Exercise 3: History Book Study

Purpose: To understand the evolution of the materialist belief system.

Read pages 9-10. Keep in mind that the materialist belief system has been with the human species since the beginning of the cycle of history.

Go to the library and find a history book that shows the progression of civilization—focus on the evolution of inventions and scientists. Write your findings in your journal. Contemplate how one material discovery led to another and once discovered or invented, humans could not live without them. Contemplate the fact that the Internet has only been around the last 10 years, cell phones the last few years, a computer since 1948, the automobile the last 100 years (1908).

Contemplate what it would be like without these “inventions”. Consider how the automobile, which has not been around long, facilitates the deterioration of the body (no exercise). Consider how the computer facilitates the deterioration of the mind (with everything at your fingertips, who needs to think?) Really contemplate this. How can we go on like this? This is a fascinating study that you can play with and break into different categories like entertainment, health/body, home appliances, etc. Contemplate the human dreams or thoughts that pulled these materials into existence. Based on this study, what do you envision for the future?

Exercise 4: No Reconstruction without Deconstruction

Purpose: To identify and understand the implications of personal addictions/habits so that they can be reformatted into a higher behavior

“In order to deconstruct historical materialism, which is at the root of the present world construct, we have to see what is the opposite of materialism—which is spiritual reality. To deconstruct the root of the prevailing belief system, you must determinedly engage in a higher spiritual point of view.” Ch. 1

Consider your “daily routine.” Is there some physical habit or addiction that you would like to overcome? Identify and define it. Or is there some mental addictive tendency that you would like to change? These addictions/tendencies can be anything from drinking, smoking, overeating to worrying and/or any other form of mental addictions.

Now, consider all of the ways that this habit or addiction hooks you into the present world construct. Make a graphic description of the habit or addiction, showing its many hooks into the present world model.

For example, if your addiction is smoking cigarettes, then your graph would show the connections between a tobacco farmer, agribusiness, pesticides, chemical industry, big cigarette corporations, advertising industry, television/magazine/newspaper/billboard ads, the cigarette production factory, the trucking industry, retail outlets and vending machines, money and you.

After this consideration, see if you can go about changing it by reprogramming yourself. First of all, think of the affects on your physical body, as well as your emotional, subtle and astral bodies. Make a list of the negative effects caused by this addiction. Be sure to include all levels. Next to each negative effect, write down a positive antidote and create a higher form of behavior to replace the old one. Remember that to change addictive tendencies or bad habits, you must consciously apply concentrated will. This means exerting in consistently directing your focus of attention to new models of behavior, until the old habitual vibration pattern is subsumed into a higher one.

Once you have embarked on your new program, consider how your new behavior will help to reconstruct the world by not feeding into the old construct. If your addiction was mental, consider how your new behavior will no longer contribute to the psychic pollution dominant in the present world model. See if you can make a graphic of this process as well.

Exercise 5: Whole Earth Visualization

Purpose: To know the value and function of our home planet.

“From a cosmic normative point of view, what is valuable and meaningful is your relationship with the Earth as a living entity and to the sun as a divine intelligently coordinating information energy system—and finally your relationship to the galactic whole and the larger constellation of which it is a part.” Ch. 1

The whole Earth is our home. The whole Earth is the reference point for all of our learning. Wherever you are on Earth, you are home. The Earth is a whole organism, a whole system.

Visualize yourself right where you are. Notice the space that you are in, whether it be inside or outside. Now lift out of the environment you find yourself in and look down on it from above. Lift out further and see the entire street or area that you are in. Now expand out and lift higher and higher out into space. From space, view the Earth as a single luminous blue mandala; like a wheel that possesses everything. See the Earth from all angles. See that it is a planetary orb, a wheel of turning in space with an essential value, its dharma or truth. The dharma or capacity of Earth is its capacity to sustain life.

Visualize the whole of life on earth, from the animals, to the plants, the humans down onto the insects and plankton. See it all as one whole system. The whole of life on the Earth is the biosphere, or the sphere of life that covers the surface of the Earth like a film or vibrant mantle that is ever in motion. Really visualize how all of the different life forms and processes are one unity on this shining blue orb.

Now let your mind penetrate beneath the surface of the Earth. Feel the spherical layers of sediment and crystalline rock. Go to the core and find the massive iron crystal octahedron. Feel this crystal core as a dynamic radio receiver elongated in the direction of each of its magnetic poles.

Place yourself in meditation at the very center of that crystal radio receiver. Who is the Earth receiving? What is the Earth broadcasting? Where is the Earth receiving? What messages is Earth giving you right now? Write your reflections in your journal.

CHAPTER 2: COSMIC HISTORY, THE LAW OF TIME AND THE SYNCHRONIC ORDER

Exercise 1: Scoping your Thoughts

Purpose: To become conscious of your daily thought patterns in order to transcend them.

For one day, commit to examining your thought processes—keep a journal or notepad with you throughout the day. Write down everything that happens in the external realm/internal realm. Record any decisions you were presented with and made today. Note the fluctuation or nonfluctuation of mood and emotion throughout the day. Notice points of frustration or anxiety, joy or excitement. Make a thorough investigation. Note any conditioned patterns of mind that may reveal themselves to you today, in the forms of particular beliefs or biases, expectations or irritations. At the end of the day, review the patterns of thought that you engaged in. View these patterns as the imaginal map of your own mind. Draw this map if you like.

It is best to do this practice on a day where you are free from obligation so that you really have time to monitor the influx of your thoughts. It is best to begin this process as early in the morning as possible. Maybe arise a few hours earlier than usual, light incense and keep a journal nearby. Do your best to keep a clear mind, but when thoughts do come to you (as they inevitably will) it is best to immediately write them down. Keep your journal with you throughout the day to monitor and record minor as well as elaborate thought processes. At the end of the experiment, consider the following:

Who thinks these thoughts? Why does there seem to be a compulsiveness to them? How many different types of thoughts are there? Is there a unified, consistent personality behind all of the thoughts? Record your answers in your journal.

Exercise 2: Shifting Perceptions/13 Moons

Purpose: To expand your mental/imaginal ability through creative engagement of the 13 Moon calendar.

“Virtually all of the conditioned reflexes of the mind of the planetary human, for the most part, are held together by the framework of the timing program they use.” Ch. 2

Read pages 25-32. If you are new to the 13-Moon calendar, do the following exercise:

First, become aware of what day it is on the Gregorian calendar. Sat. Feb. 12, 2005 for example. Think about this. What feelings does it bring up? For one, it is the weekend so that feels different from a weekday. In addition, it is two days before Valentines Day—what does this make you feel? Does it make you tune into your love relations/emotions or lack thereof? Does it make you feel as though you have to do something, like become a consumer of flowers or chocolates? Who made all of this up anyway? Does it aid in your evolution? From the Earth’s point of view, does any of this matter?

Now find the correlate date for the 13-Moon calendar. You see that it is Galactic Moon 6, Yellow Overtone Sun. You will also see that Limi is the day of the week. How can you experience this? Start by breaking it down. First, note that from your 13-Moon calendar, the Galactic Moon is the Moon of Integrity. This can be your first point of reflection. And today is the Yellow Overtone Sun, which corresponds to enlightenment, empowerment and life. Just by knowing this basic information, you can begin to create daily questions for yourself to enhance your self-reflective capacity. This new way of thinking and contemplation on a daily basis will shift your consciousness to a new operating frequency, which is infinitely creative and exciting.

If you are familiar with the 13-Moon calendar, do this exercise:

Study the oracle and codes of the day. Then expand your creative consciousness by seeing how many different creative orderings you can find. Write a short code story, prayer, song, poem, prose, etc. of the daily codes to spark your imagination and enter you further into the synchronic realms. Try to include as many levels and layers of the synchronic order as possible. Remember: “The matrices contained in the calendar unlock limitless programs—but you are the one who provides the actual meaning. For every person there will be a different meaning for the different juxtaposition of codes.”

Exercise 3: Uncovering your Daily Programming

Purpose: To directly experience all the ways in which a calendar is a programming device.

Pick up a Gregorian calendar and study it. What is programmed into each month? For everyone, the meaning is a bit different according to religious holidays or birthdates of friends and family. Map your own pattern on the Gregorian calendar: Birthdays, anniversaries, tax time, holidays (or whatever you celebrate or is celebrated by the collective human). Write these in your journal. This is your annual “program.”

Note that this program, embedded into the Gregorian calendar, is run year in and year out. Each year that it is run without questioning it only increases unconscious thought patterns and therefore increases the acceptance of this particular program as absolute concrete reality. Note that this program is full of concepts like taxes, democracy, war, economics, insurance and holidays. Without reflecting on the meaning of this program, consciousness becomes stagnant—a stunted loop that brings up the same feelings and emotions at particular times, year after year.

For example: Consider the thoughtforms associated with the word “Christmas.” Write them in your journal. Then pinpoint other popular holidays, note what “month” they fall in and then note the specific thoughts and feelings that are associated with them. For added awareness, you may want to write the meanings of all of the names of the months in your journal. Also contemplate the fact that most annual holidays happen on a different day of the week, due to irregular programming.

Consider what happens when all of those holiday moments are fixed on the Thirteen Moon calendar. For example, Dec. 25 would always be Rhythmic Moon, day 13. Feel the difference in your mind between “December 25” and “Rhythmic 13.” Keep in mind that December means “ten” but is the twelfth month.

In contrast, the 13-Moon calendar is more than just a schedule of events, but has the synchronic order programmed into it, so there is a whole other level of mental/magical engagement that is possible.

Exercise 4: Theater of Time

Purpose: To explore the magickal levels and layers coded into the synchronic order.

Instead of distracting your soul through movies, media and television, why not enter into the theater of time? Select a time when you can be alone. Now focus on a particular aspect of the Dreamspell or 13-Moon calendar. There is much to learn, so break it down. Choose a facet for each day for a 28-day trial period. Pre program the subject matter into your calendar and commit to a certain amount of time each day for studying, coloring and contemplating. For example: Day 1: Glyphs/Tones Day 2: Planet Holon Day 3: Galactic Compass, etc. By the end of 28 days, you will be quite activated and excited to learn more! Of course, some parts will require more study time than others.

The point is to learn how to creatively and interactively study the codes of time. Just start playing and entire worlds will open up to you. If you haven't already done so, you may want to begin this experiment by memorizing all of the solar seals and tones. Draw and color them in creative ways.

Here are some topics to explore, consult your Dreamspell for a complete list and more information: Glyphs/tones, Planet Holon, Chromatics, Fifth Force Oracle, Wavespells, Castles Galactic Compass, Pulsars, Planets, Time Cells, Dreamspell Genesis, Destiny Board, Human Holon, Solar Cells

Make these exercises fascinating for yourself! For example, when studying the Planet Holon it is helpful to get a world map and divide it into 20 icosohedral zones. Then draw each of the solar seals over the appropriate zone. This way you can really study your geography with the energy of the corresponding solar seal.

Remember that the "Dreamspell is the doorway to the infinite."

Exercise 5: Harmonic Module as Encyclopedia of Time

Purpose: To understand the multivalued use of the supreme matrix code.

“The 260-day or 13:20 pattern is naturally going to orient you to the imaginal realm because it is, in and of itself, a fourth-dimensional program for reading third-dimensional events.” Ch. 2

Read pages 32-37. Explore the Harmonic Module/Tzolkin. (see graphic on p. 87) Imagine that each of its 260 squares is a door—when opened it contains a vast store of information, memories, thoughts, dreams, experiences, as well as evolutionary timing codes. Each day you are playing your program coded into this matrix, while simultaneously depositing information by your response to programmed experiences. Keep in mind, that this matrix is a fourth dimensional overlay onto the third-dimensional reality you are now experiencing. Contemplate this well. Write down any reflections in your journal.

You may want to explore some of the different levels and orders of this 13:20 Harmonic Module.

- For example, contemplate the Harmonic Module as a coded historical encyclopedia (see Baktun Map on p. 88) The thirteen vertical columns are broken down into what the Maya called baktuns, which is roughly equivalent to 144,000 days. Note how the 20 vertical units are filled with historical events or people. Begin to see this entire program of history as a single thoughtform—a single program. Record your reflections in your journal.
- You can also use the Harmonic Module to contemplate the Cycle of Becoming and the Cycle of Return. Read pages 29-30. The Cycle of Becoming is the cycle of manifestation on the physical plane. The Cycle of Return is the cycle of the soul emerging from the physical plane into an ever increasing spiritual plane of existence. Contemplate the first 130 units of the Harmonic Module as the Cycle of Becoming and the last 130 units as the Cycle of Return.
- The Harmonic Module can also be used as an interplanetary index, corresponding to the different planets and thus representing the interplanetary history. Focus on this aspect. Study the Harmonic Module with the planets (see graphic on p. 89). Choose a “door” to open a planet. What does the seal or color and tone tell you about the experience of that planet? Can you find the two flows, Galactic Karmic (Pluto to Mercury) and Solar-Prophetic (Mercury to Pluto)?

CHAPTER 3: PLANETARY HUMAN

Exercise 1: Life Review

Purpose: To become a more purified vessel by uncovering hidden programming conditioned in your childhood.

Read pages 40-45. Now get out your journal and time travel into the heart of your childhood. Note the mental conditions of the particular life configuration that you were born into. Recall the scents and sounds of your household situation. What kinds of foods were you fed? What kind of religion were you born into? Was there substance abuse or violence in your home? What kinds of stories were you told? Be honest and do your best to uncover your deepest programming. If particular events come into your mind, explore why those particular events stand out the most in your memory. Of what value is this reinforced memory? How did your early childhood set your life program? Buddhists say that by the age of seven you are pretty well formed. Does this seem true for you? Can you recall yourself at this time?

Now reflect on the lessons and meaning of your life. What have you learned? What are you currently learning? Do you use circumstances that happened in your early life (or later life, even) as an excuse for not evolving? What channels have you closed off that you would now like to open? Take yourself apart! Find the divine in all of your life circumstances!

Exercise 2: Uncovering Machine/Media Influences

Purpose: To become conscious of worldly influences in order to transcend them.

In reviewing your life as a planetary human, consider in what ways your life has been (or is) shaped by television, movies, popular music, electronic music, videos, computer, the Internet, etc. Write observations in your journal. Then take an inventory and see in the length of one week how many of these forces you are interacting with and how they are shaping your life. Also during this time, be aware of the different statements, slogans and sayings that you come across in any of your activities; reading, movies, music, other people, the Internet, etc. Make a mosaic of these statements or slogans and see what overall message it forms.

If you are serious about exorcizing useless bits of media sludge from your mind, then it is helpful to write a stream of consciousness "Pop culture poem." Again, note just how much of what runs through your mind are slogans, songs or expressions that you have heard from popular forms of media. Do not worry about writing a "good" poem, but rather use it as a forum to spew out all of those fragmented loops, artificial foods, song phrases, slogans, commercial jingles, etc. onto a sheet of paper in some coherent form. The key is to get them all out so you can look at them and dissolve them. When this fills your mind, how can you possibly have fresh perceptions?

Is it possible to remove yourself from all influences for at least a few days to see what it is like?

Exercise 3: Constructing your Destiny Castle

Purpose: To identify the patterns of your life according to the synchronic order.

You will need a Dreamspell and/or a 13-Moon calendar for this exercise. Map out your 52-year cycle into four wavespells beginning with your birth signature. (see Destiny Castle, p. 92, and Wavespell with Pulsars, p. 91) Note significant life events. Notice what type of patterns or life cycles appear. See your life as one whole—a large radial matrix. All of the events that have ever happened to you or will happen to you exist simultaneously in this matrix.

If you have already done this exercise, then see if you can view it this time from a different angle or perspective. You might want to concentrate on the life pattern of your rotating Earth families, noting specific occurrences that may have played out every four years. Or view your life simply through the lens of the four colors, red, white, blue, yellow. In what ways were your “red” years initiatic? In what ways were your “white” years a time of refinement? In what ways did you transform during your “blue” years? How did you ripen during your “yellow” years. Also, be sure to connect the pulsars, making note of how the different years and life experiences are connected.

“The deeper pattern of the planetary human is just another eternal return at a much larger point in the evolutionary spectrum, where all meaning is now being irrevocably altered.” Ch. 3

Exercise 4: Planetary Human Collage

Purpose: To realize that we are but one gigantic being with many parts.

“...When everyone realizes themselves as the one being, telepathy is inevitable it will be able to contact and speak to itself anywhere at any time.” Ch. 3

Collect or gather a number of used magazines—news magazines, nature magazines, entertainment/pop culture magazines, National Geographic magazines or any other journal that will aid you in constructing your collage of the planetary human. Then get a large piece of poster board (or an even larger sheet if you wish). Now envision the One being of which we are all a part of.

Now make a large universal collage or mind/body map of the One being, be sure to include something that represents all traditions, all races, all spiritual teachings, all civilizations, etc. You can go as far out as you wish to include different planets, universes and galaxies, etc.

The point is to create the UR being in order to see that there is only one being with many parts. If you really get into this project, your entire being will experience profound integration, as you will be drawing all paths back to one single thought form. See where this takes you!

Exercise 5: Visualization: Renewing your Earthly Persona

Purpose: To clear the slate and remake yourself through self-reflection and the contemplation of universal compassion.

Set aside some time each day to practice merging into the post 2012 planetary human, operating with a noospheric compassionate consciousness, tuned into the whole of life on the planet.

Part 1: Letting go and developing compassion.

First, develop compassion by sincerely contemplating all of the different forms of suffering that are happening on the planet today. What is the reason for suffering? Write your reflections down in your journal. This contemplation gives rise to a deep sense of compassion for all beings. If done with the highest intention, this contemplation will culminate in a deep desire to eliminate for once and for all the suffering of every living creature!

Contemplate the following and make notes in your journal:

The only way out of suffering is through knowledge of the illusory nature of all created form-- however, in order to realize this, you have to sacrifice your time. What does this mean? What attachments do you have that keep you in a state of suffering? Identify them and then take a big breath of relief and remember that they do not actually exist!

Part 2: Penetrating fully the Earth's consciousness. Meditate on the unified thread of light between all beings. You are the supramental bridge. You want to renew your earthly persona so that it reflects a purified instrument able to channel the highest force. What does it mean to embody the universal human being in its entirety? How can you make your thoughts, words and actions absolutely universalized? Feel the quickening of your evolution. Form a clear mental picture of your Highest Self. Feel rainbow light beams shooting out of your third eye into the minds of every last creature causing them to be filled with overwhelming joy and supreme happiness!

CHAPTER 4: YOGA/TRANSFORMATION AND COSMIC HISTORY

Exercise 1: Sitting Still/Controlling the Thought waves

Purpose: To stop your mind and experience the Real.

“The yogic point of view is the direct perception of reality that is based on the control of the thought-waves—so you have penetration of your own mind and consciousness in awareness with the all-abiding reality.”

Set aside some quite time when you know that you will not be disturbed. Devote your whole being to experience directly the nature of your original mind and self to the exclusion of all else.

Here is traditional meditation instruction from Dr. Arcturus, extracted from the Rinri Project Newsletter III, Volume 1, No. 3:

“The practice for awakening natural mind is extraordinarily simple. It is the most human form and experience you can have. It is the repository of natural dignity as well. In addition, anyone can do it. You just have to sit still. The natural way is to sit on the floor, on a cushion that is firm, supports the erect back, and that allows one to sit cross-legged. On the floor, on a cushion like this is most preferable and most natural. However, if that is not possible due to your health and/or body condition, then sit on a chair with feet firmly on the floor and back erect, not leaning on the back of the chair.

“Holding the spine erect is already waking up and staying awake. The chin is just slightly down and the eyes are half-open looking down the tip of the nose to the floor. The eyes are open to avoid falling asleep or going into fantasy realms, which occurs all too easily when the eyes are closed. The point is not to escape from reality but to see and experience the natural mind without acting on it. The hands are comfortably on the knees, palms down. Holding this is the natural posture of the alert human being. Keep checking your posture as you sit. You want the spine to be erect, holding you up. The capacity to do this is what distinguishes the human from virtually every other animal. Do not slouch!

“Now, in this position, you have nothing to do but watch your breath. Breathe normally. You will become immediately aware of your thoughts. As you become aware of your thoughts - it matters not the least the nature or content of the thought - just label it “thinking,” and as you exhale, dissolve the thought. At that very moment before exhaling and just as the thought is dissolved, lies the “gap” between the thoughts. It is this gap you are going to want to become familiar with and cultivate. It is the seed of natural mind and the key to your true, authentic self.

“Try doing this for half an hour, for 45 minutes, or even an hour. You have to realize that just holding this position, no matter what is occurring in your mind, you are peace. You are resisting unexamined thought impulses to do things while remaining in a position that is thoroughly non-aggressive. Imagine everyone on the planet doing this for one hour each morning before they start their day. Wouldn't the world then be at peace? The importance of holding this position cannot be emphasized enough. It is 99 per cent of this practice of experiencing your natural mind, because it is really the only way that you are going to be able to experience your natural mind - and nothing else. In addition, if you do not know what natural mind is, you cannot really say you are in natural time.

“It can be argued that you can experience your natural mind while driving a car, or doing beadwork, or playing golf or, certainly, gardening, for instance, which is true enough. But while you are involved in these activities, you are still preoccupied with something. You are not actually devoting your whole self to experiencing directly the nature of your original mind and self to the exclusion of all else. And that is the point of this training. To have the pure, raw experience of seeing your own mind - that and nothing else.”

Exercise 2: Body as Civilization

Purpose: To discover how you are your environment.

“Within this body six feet in length, lies the entire universe.” Buddha

“Yoga is the effort to reestablish the divine or sacred order within the human body itself, within the totality of what the human being is.” Ch. 4

Begin to connect your living quarters with your own body. Draw an outline of your house, dome, apartment, room, or whatever your dwelling place may be at the moment. Now determine which part of the space is the heart center then go from there, plugging each room or area of space into your chakras. Feel how you ARE your environment. Feel the sacredness of your dwelling space as contained in each of your chakras. Engage the imaginal realm to transform your dwelling place into a mythic court reflecting the higher dimensions.

Meditate on the meaning of the following: “The original sacred city is the reflection of the human being and the human being is the reflection of the temple.”

You can practice this exercise using maps of cities, countries, continents, up to the planet, with the planet holon to the Mayan interdimensional star map on page 138. Remember: Everything from your third-dimensional home to the vast reaches of the universe can be located inside of your body!

Exercise 3: Eight-limbed Character Transformation

Purpose: To understand how you fabricate your character in order to transform it.

Part I: Notice how each thought has a whole set of emotional reactions to it. Experiment to see how we are like monkeys reacting to thoughts generated by some unseen thought-mart conjuring dramas, comedies, romances, tragedies, and even horror films. Notice how you are sent certain thoughts causing your body to have a certain emotional reaction according to your specific wiring (psychogenetic makeup).

In your journal, make note of how seemingly random triggers might set off a whole emotional reaction. Try to note the chain reaction of your thoughts and behaviors in response to the trigger. Now answer the following questions in your journal: Who made or created this automatic character that you are? What purpose does your personality serve? Note how your personality is nothing but a compilation of philosophies, concepts and beliefs woven into you at specific moments in time.

Recognizing all of your particular conditioned thought feedback loops is an important step in releasing them. If you sincerely do this work, you will soon see how all of your thoughts are illusory phantoms, which will, in turn, make it tremendously easier to dissolve all thoughtforms in your meditation, opening you to the cosmic states that you have been longing to return to.

Part II: Read carefully pages 64-67. Study the eight limbs of yoga, as coined by Patanjali in his classic Yoga Sutras. Now using the template below, craft your program of transformation using the template of the 8 limbs. The goal is to transform your physical body back into cosmic reality. How can you use these as a guideline to discipline yourself back to your original perfection?

1. Yama—Transform moral behavior
2. Niyama—Intensify inner discipline
3. Asana—Exert physical body
4. Pranayama—Transform breath
5. Pratyhara—Transform perception of sensory input
6. Dharani—Develop concentration (to activate memory)
7. Dhyani—Practice meditation
8. Samadhi—Cultivate superconscious state of mind

Exercise 4: Jnana (mind) Yoga Exercise

Purpose: To experience your physical body within the resonant field model.

“To serve the purpose of evolution, the etheric body—the subtle body within the light body within the dense body—is spirit’s offering to the soul in order for it to be able to evolve beyond the physical plane.” Ch. 4

Transport yourself to the center of the graphic (Physical Body in Resonant Field Model) as seen on page 68. Memorize the three resonant fields:

1. Gravitational field—governs third-dimensional physical body
2. Electromagnetic field—governs sensory phenomenal world of appearances
3. Biopsychic field—governs patterns of consciousness manifest as life

Visualize the gravitational field as the force that causes your body to be coherent and stay grounded. Visualize the electromagnetic field as the surrounding force that is continuously pouring out different frequencies of information into each of your senses. Visualize the biopsychic field as the vertical force field passing through your spinal axis that is continuously streaming through from the higher dimensions into your mind.

Remember from the visualization exercise in Chapter 1 that the biosphere is the region for transformation of cosmic energy--this is in accord with the Law of Time and the three resonant fields. (for more in-depth information regarding the resonant field model, see Earth Ascending)

Once you imprint yourself with the resonant field model, you can use it as a perceptual lens in which to view the world. Visualize it whenever you need to and see how it informs and stabilizes you.

Exercise 5: Understanding Aboriginal and Cosmic Awareness

Purpose: To internally realize the AC/CA as the fourth dimensional biological cultural timing circuits.

Read pages 73-76. Pay close attention to the graphic on p. 75. Study and comprehension of the AC/CA currents accelerates the advance into the noosphere.

AC (Invisible)—Aboriginal continuity

CA (Manifest)—Cosmic Awareness

Sit up straight (or stand) and breathe evenly in and out. Clear your mind of the thinking element. Focussing on conscious respiration, direct your breath to your spinal column. Now cover your left nostril and breath in through your right nostril to energize and activate the AC current. See this current of internal force winding around your spinal column. This is the internal force. It contains information that comes to you from the future. It creates the matrix from which history itself arises.

Now cover your right nostril and breath in through your left nostril to energize and activate the CA current. See this current of manifest form winding around your spinal column forming a crossover polarity with the AC current. This current contains information that flows to you from the past, inclusive of all of the cumulative cultural forms. The CA represents history itself, or the manifest reality that is built on models of past behavior.

Now feel the continuous necessary interaction between the AC and the CA currents weaving around your spinal column. This can also be understood as a psychogenetic feedback loop ... the continuous interchange between the biologically innate and increasingly elaborated psychocultural factors.

Now turn your attention to the the other graphic on page 75 “The Two Sides of the Galactic Brain.” Meditate on how these two components (AC/CA) structure the galactic brain or the galactic field of intelligence. For more information regarding the AC/CA circuits see Earth Ascending and the 20 Tablets for the Law of Time.

If you want to take this practice one step further: Meditate on how it is that the AC/CA currents also constitute the regulating mechanism of the psi bank (which coordinates the noosphere as a supermental organism). Realize the fact that these circuits are also in your own brain. Identify your deeply cut channels resulting from similar reproduction during centuries of repeated thought. What are your repeated patterns that no longer serve? Use the practice of the AC/CA to restore these thought currents to wholeness. Write your experiences and observations in your journal.

CHAPTER 5: SORCERER'S WHOLE BODY PERCEPTION AND YOGA

Exercise 1: Chakra Plunge

Purpose: To uncover life programs rooted in your chakras.

Consider your seven chakras as constituting a nuclei of your intrinsic life programs. Read and contemplate page 79 to take a glimpse of what life programs each chakra is associated with. If you are not already familiar with the chakras, then it is best to first meditate on each of the chakras, inclusive of its color, location in the body and number of lotus petals. Inhale and feel the prana or life force feeding each of these chakras with pristine energy. Chakras are psychoactive generators turning and being fed by streams of prana. Within the prana or vital breath are the seven radial plasmas. Activate these as they provide the energetic psychotelepathic fuel. There is no limit to the vast inner worlds that will open to you upon contemplation of your chakras.

To begin, sit quietly and breathe. Breathe until you sense the etheric body around the physical body. Breathe prana into the subtle body, which is aligned with the spine. Now, again activate each of your chakras from the bottom up with the corresponding number of lotus petals as described on p. 79. Breathe into each chakra and let go, see it growing brighter and brighter in color. Notice the types of programs stored in each chakra. Record them in your journal.

--Root chakra—Examine your survival programs. Do you feel that you have to struggle to have your basic needs met? How much time is spent on ensuring your “security”/survival? Meditate on your red root chakra and see what old security programs you are carrying. Release cloudy gray programs associated with this chakra and inhale new sparkling red energy into your root chakra. Know that the highest programs are being infused and extending out to all beings.

--Secret chakra—Examine your views and beliefs about sexuality. What is the cosmic purpose of sex? What old beliefs or ideas do you hold about your own sexuality? In what ways do you channel your precious life force? Many unconscious programs are stored in this chakra awaiting your reflection. Release cloudy gray programs with the out breath and then inhale luminous orange energy into your secret chakra. Know that the highest programs are being infused and extending out to all beings.

--Solar Plexus—Examine your beliefs about power. What is power? What do you know about your own power? How do you use your power? Identify all third-dimensional attachments or power struggles that keep you from experiencing the grand hook-up to the big power circuit. Release sticky gray attachment programs with the out breath and then inhale radiant yellow energy into your solar plexus. Know that the highest programs are being infused and extending out to all beings.

--Heart chakra—Examine your own capacity for selfless compassion. Identify all programs of selfishness that keep you from extending love and service to others. Make an honest assessment of your capacity for joy. How can you extend your heart out to all that lives touching them with rays of compassion? Release all murky resentments and selfishness with the outbreath and then inhale bright shiny green energy into your heart chakra. Know that the highest programs are being infused and extending out to all beings.

--Throat chakra—Examine thoroughly your speech. How do you say things? What do you talk about? Do you talk incessantly, compulsively? Do you use your voice to communicate from your heart your true feelings, or do you use words as a shield to cover over your insecurity? Is your voice kind and melodious sounding, or do you talk rapidly, anxious to say as much as possible. What do you use your voice or power of communication for? Release all idle chatter and nervous talk and inhale cool soothing blue energy into your throat chakra. Know that the highest programs are being infused and extending out to all beings.

--Third Eye—Examine your views regarding psychic phenomenon. What do you know about your powers in this area? What have you experienced? The whole system is directly knowable through the sixth sense or mind, which is the supersensory mode of knowing or experiencing. Release the need to “try and figure it all out” and inhale indigo energy into your third eye chakra. Know that the highest programs are being infused and extending out to all beings.

--Crown chakra—Examine capacities for enlightenment that need to be activated. Identify all types of mind games that you may play with others or with yourself. Release all head-trips and rote thinking and inhale luminous violet energy into your crown chakra. Know that the highest programs are being infused and extending out to all beings.

Root of Root—extends to and encompasses the Earth’s octahedral crystal core

Crown of Crowns—extends to and encompasses the Earth’s noosphere

(for more about this practice see Mystery of the Stone)

Exercise 2: Exercising the Seven Radial Plasmas

Purpose: To discover telepathic programs embedded in the plasmas.

“Within the prana, or the vital breath are the different primary plasmas, known as the seven radial plasmas...Once consciously breathed in, these plasmas may be directed to different chakras, where they provide the energetic psychotelepathic fuel.” Ch. 5

Read and contemplate p. 80-81 carefully. Meditate on each of the seven radial plasmas as being a specific telepathic message unit. (It is also helpful if you have a 7:7::7:7)

The seven plasmas constitute the most primary microelectric quanta building blocks of universal structures, such as atoms, but also as carriers of types of information. See if you can discover what types of information they carry. The first three units: Dali, Seli and Gamma correspond to the sensory “outer” quanta or the phenomenal realm. The middle unit, Kali is the corresponding link between the sensory and telepathic quanta, and the remaining three units: Alpha, Limi and Silio are the telepathic “inner” quanta.

These seven plasmas are the key to your third-to-fourth dimensional hook-up. With concentrated and focused meditation, you will feel the power of each of the plasmas surge through you in waves of liquid light-heat, opening you to the vast realm of the electronic universe. After imprinting each of the radial plasmas into each of the chakra centers, meditate them overlaid onto the petals of the chakras.

Meditate on the higher dimensional telepathic programs contained in each of the radial plasmas located in your chakras. Meditate on these in correlation with the previous life-program chakra exercise.

Seli/Root Chakra--Higher telepathic powers that reinforce your luminous connection with the earth as a living organism, roots you to the octahedral core of the Earth.

Kali/Secret Chakra--Higher telepathic powers of the “inner sun” the solar programs that connect the activation of your sexual energy (life force) with the sun itself, connecting your sensory and telepathic programs.

Limi/Solar Plexus Chakra—Mental electron of the higher telepathic galactic information circuit. With meditative focus, this center connects you to the coordinating orders of the AA Midway Station, the central mediating center for information between our solar system and all of the higher dimensional realities.

Silio/Heart Chakra—Mental electron/neutron (MEN) that contains higher telepathic powers that connect you with the compassionate guardians of our planet and our solar system. Associated with the Pleiades.

Alpha/Throat Chakra—Double Extended Electron which contains powers of telepathic communication or capacities that might also be connected to the star Sirius.

Gamma/Third Eye Chakra—Contains the inner light of the higher telepathic psychic wisdom; the ability to know the whole as it is directly emanating from the Hunab Ku.

Dali/Crown Chakra—Pure psychic heat that contains higher telepathic powers that open you to the intrinsic bliss of the higher universal life. Associated with the Ominidirectional source.

Root of root chakra—Contains higher telepathic powers of all the coordinating forces of cosmic consciousness gathered like a seed at the center of the Earth.

Crown of Crown chakra—Contains various thought or meditation waves of the galactic brain. Can only be accessed with highly focused, directed effort.

Exercise 3: Imprinting Harmonic Module/Tzolkin

Purpose: To cultivate prolonged concentration and continuing consciousness, which is fundamental to experiencing sorcerer's whole body perception.

Clear your mind of all thoughts and carefully examine the 260-unit Harmonic Module/Tzolkin on page 87 of this workbook. Notice the 52 shaded units, known individually as galactic activation portals and collectively as the Loom of Maya. (For more information about this, see The Mayan Factor). Examine the dot-bar notation 1-13 that fills each of the 260 units. Notice the 20 glyphs on the left hand side.

Stare at this pattern for a prolonged period, allowing its harmonic patterns to sear into your brain. Do your best to etch as many details as possible into your mind, knowing that soon you will be asked to recall it. Remember this is a practice to increase your concentration and enhance your continuing consciousness. Your success is according to your mental exertion.

Now put the graphic away and go for a walk, rest or do something else for a while. When you are ready, test your memory. Call up the image of the Harmonic Module in as much detail as possible. What do you see in your mind's eye? Can you recall where the 7 Serpent is located? Can you visualize what number and glyphs are in each of the four corners? Can you see which seal and tone each of the 52 GAP days are? Give yourself time to recall. Be patient. After you have recalled as much as you can, flip to the graphic and study it again. You will inevitably notice new things, patterns or have new insights.

Continue this exercise every day until you can easily call forth the Harmonic Module on the screen of your mind. This builds the power of continuing consciousness, which is the prerequisite for sorcerer's whole body perception, leading to time travel.

Exercise 4: Pranic Current Alignment

Purpose: To bring the imaginal realm into contact with the phenomenal realm.

Assume your favorite Hatha yoga pose (or just sit in proper meditation form). Quiet your mind of all thoughts. Do not try. Just stop. Now breathe deeply, inhale, hold and exhale in equal measure. Keeping the mind clear, focus on the central column of your spine. Allow pranic currents to naturally align. Hold this for a few moments.

Now breathe and activate each of the chakras, inclusive of its radial plasma. See the wheels of each chakra spinning simultaneously. Coordinate your etheric body by activating the double helix AC/CA circuits as practiced in exercise 5 in chapter 4. Feel the double helix as two interweaving strands weaving around your central column (spine). Continue to view the chakras spinning while the double helix is weaving.

Know that this double helix AC/CA circuit is a cosmic memory template, grounding the imaginal realm in the phenomenal realm.

Keep everything spinning and moving in pristine clarity so that you can actually see divine sparks of prana flying out renewing each of your chakras. (Through telepathic attunement, you are aligning your etheric body with your physical body, bringing your entire being into balance, which activates the AC/CA cosmic memory templates). This is the first step in grounding the imaginal realm into the phenomenal realm.

Exercise 5: Dance of the Planet Holon

Purpose: To connect your body with the planet body, feeling yourself as an archetypal reflection of higher cosmos.

Your body is a temple and its movements are a reflection of the original sacred order of the higher cosmos. Contemplate the following question: How are the functions of nature reproduced in the microcosm of the human body?

In order to practice whole body sensing, you must first become familiar with the planet holon and the categories of whole body experience and pages 85-86. Study carefully the spiral movement of the Planet holon beginning with the Dragon, Wind, Night, etc. Notice which chakra each of the Solar Seals are in. With this pattern firmly imprinted, partake in the Dance of the Planet Holon with the purpose of making your senses coextensive with the planet so that you experience yourself in relation to the planet body.

If you so desire you can tape record a guided meditation for each of the glyphs and include music or drum in the background to dance to. Be creative and feel the transformative quality of the Dance of the Solar Seals. Make your own dances weaving together each of the 13 tones. Have fun. Be creative. And work it out.

Dance of the Solar Seals

Feel into the Red Dragon—Becoming the nurturing Dragon that gives birth to new being—Really feel into this primal quality and power to birth a new reality.

Now become the White Wind—Let the invisible light breath of spirit blow through you. Breathe consciously and deeply, surrender and allow spirit to communicate you!

The Blue Night arrives filling you with dreams of the Most High. Move to the beat of the night and allow yourself to be transformed as you are showered with intuition in abundance.

Now you are the Yellow Seed, flowering and ripening, feel your body/mind grow and expand in awareness toward the target of the sun—solar consciousness.

Now slither and slide—You are the Red Serpent, and survival is your guide. Let Instinct take over and feel the initiatic Life-force penetrate your passionate dance.

Now you are the White Worldbridger uniting Heaven and Earth in your dance of death. Creating opportunity as you glide through the worlds, equalizing and refining—you are the death-less one.

Swirling and twirling you transform into the Blue Hand.. With a feeling for healing, you show what you know as you are the dance of Accomplishment.

Bursting on the scene you are the elegant Yellow Star. Twinkling and glowing you create beauty on all worlds—your dance is the meaning of art.

You create the rest: Moon through Sun

CHAPTER 6: ORIGINS AND MEANING OF LIFE: WHAT IS COSMIC SCIENCE?

Exercise 1: Critical Thinking/Science

Purpose: To gain an understanding of the basis of Western Science and what it has to do with you.

When studying any kind of science it is important to continuously ponder the following questions:

What is examining?

What is consciousness?

Can you examine something without consciousness?

Ponder these questions thoughtfully and write your reflections in your journal. What do you know about Western science and how does it impact you personally? Does this dominant Western science begin with acknowledging the existence of mind and consciousness? What types of people are the “most well noted” scientists? Would you trust a scientist who cannot control his/her thought waves? Does Western science consider extraterrestrial intelligence? What is the human being? How does Western science view the role of the human being?

Contemplate how Western science creates theories such as the Big Bang. Do these theories acknowledge any kind of creative intelligence? Where did the material for the explosion of the Big Bang come from in the first place?

Contemplate how matter arises in the world of form. Through application of Cosmic Science, we can find out. Why do we want to? Because then we can begin to understand this and in understanding this we can uncreate polluting technologies, eliminate toxic waste, dissolve bombs and guns and erase disease from the planet. Reflect on these themes and write about it in your journal.

Exercise 2: Your Body as a Tuning Fork

Purpose: Visualization/To understand your senses as a multi-frequency radar system.

Visualize yourself as a medium or transduction agent. You are a link, a cosmic chain of transformative actions of cycles and processes. Knowing this, how can you make the best use of your time while on this Earth?

Visualize the different cycles of transformation going through you. What are you facilitating by living? Visualize the system of life in your body. Can you make a graphic of this system? How do you experience your intelligence? How can you use your intelligence to clear the history channel and input the New Time?

Now visualize yourself sitting at the center of the sun. Just be there and allow the radiant light to purify and fill you with lucid awareness. You are absorbing the direct energy from the sun. Allow the intensity of the heat to increase. Every cell in your body is receiving and bathing in this glorious light that is continuously growing brighter and brighter. Know that this luminosity is purifying your being making you a crystal clear tuning fork for the Earth. Let the sun's energy invigorate you and fill your channel and all of your etheric nervous fibers with pure, luminous solar energy.

Now come back to Earth and adjust your self-perceptions to that of a "solar recharge battery." Using the sun's energy, realize that your senses are actually a multifrequency radar system. This means that if you actually take the time, especially in a quiet room or out in nature, you will be able to tune into the entire spectrum of solar-galactic frequencies, which actually flood the environment.

Learn to listen to the silence and feel all of its textures. When you look, really take the time to see and experience the phenomenal number of modulations of color and light that fill the field of vision. Taste the taste in your mouth. Feel all the nuances of what it is to taste yourself. Take a deep inhalation and smell. Whatever it may be, feel all of the different gradations of odor. Touch the palms of your hands and extended fingers to each other, pressing not too hard, but enough so that you can really feel your skin touching itself. What is this? Everything that you experience, all the gradations of every sense organ are modulations of solar-galactic frequencies and energies. If you still your mind while you do any of these sensory experiments, see if you can feel the messages being communicated. Write them in your journal.

"The purpose of the creation of the human being is to create a highly evolved and intricate medium, not only to act as a vehicle of cosmic intelligence, but as a conduit for ever evolving consciousness and spirit." Ch. 6

Exercise 3: Nature Field Trip

Purpose: To learn to see the patterns of life by first perceiving the patterns of nature.

Go out into a wooded nature area. While sitting in nature read and contemplate page 102: The Holonomic Equation. How many patterns can you find—large and small? Contemplate the patterns. Every last detail is saturated with holonomic consistency. Remember how simple life actually is. Write your reflections in your journal. What do these patterns teach you about yourself? About the Earth? About the cosmos?

Remember that you could not learn from nature if there were not patterns and “you couldn’t recognize the patterns if there weren’t some kind of intelligible process within your own neurocerebral make-up.” Sketch some of the patterns you see from the rocks to the trees to the leaves. Nature will greatly reward you for your sincere appreciation of her.

Exercise 4: Viewing the Machine World/Technosphere

Purpose: To understand the deeper implications of the machine/money dominated consensual reality.

“The machine seems to have transformed the human being into an artificial creature with increasing dependence on other forms of life, particularly on the machine.” Ch. 6

Lift yourself above the Earth and visualize the technosphere, inclusive of all of its various kinds of machines and engineering processes for facilitating machines, including automobiles, cell phones, computers, trucks, bombs, freeways, appliances, skyscrapers, etc. See how many you can think of. Write a list in your journal. Now contemplate all the ways that humans are dependent on the machine world. How many millions of people drive cars, use computers, watch television and wear a watch, etc. Think of every hour of the day of which machines are being employed.

Contemplate what kind of an effect this has on consciousness. Contemplate how we now have a virtual reality unified planetary being hologram, but an unconscious one, that mindlessly walks through malls, airports, grocery stores and even down the street, apparently talking to itself on a cell phone, or worse yet a wireless headset cell phone. What is this about? What is the purpose of this? Write your reflections in your journal. Now imagine if all or a good portion of these gadgets dissolved and the humans had their time and energy freed up to think and imagine.

Now turn your attention to money. How is money dependent on the machine? Doesn't it take a machine to print money? Then you get your money by pushing a few buttons on what is known as an ATM machine. Isn't this strange? Take this one step further and trace the history of the dollar bill from the Federal Reserve System. For example, when the Federal Reserve Bank prints a new $20 bill where does it go next? What path does it take to end up in your pocket when you put the card in the ATM machine?

Exercise 5: Three-in-one Exercise

Purpose: To recognize yourself as a three-part entity.

“Art is how the fourth-dimensional uses the third-dimensional body to bring it into harmony with the fifth-dimensionally.” Ch. 6

Get a pen, paintbrush, crayon, colored pencil, chalk and a white piece of paper, practice drawing and making a perfect circle. Just this. Visualize that the hand that is holding the drawing instrument is your third-dimensional body. The hand that is holding the picture of the imaginal form of the circle is your fourth-dimensional body. The fifth-dimensional light body is the one who is providing the superior coordinating of the fourth-dimensional visual projection and the third-dimensional hand making the drawing of the circle. The more perfect the circle, the more coordinated your three bodies are. Experiment with different shapes.

Remember: You are the fifth-dimensional entity waiting to be recognized.

CHAPTER 7: TRIPLE UNIVERSE MODEL

Exercise 1: Identifying Belief Systems

Purpose: To recognize how your belief systems create the world you live in.

“What you tend to repeat on a daily basis to create a semblance of reality constitutes your belief system.” Ch. 7

Read pages 119-121. In your journal, make a diagram of the seven-day week (it is best to use the 13-Moon calendar and begin with Dali). Make each box big enough so that you can write in it. Now write in the main activities that you engaged in over the past week in as much detail as possible—even down to your grocery shopping. Remember that everything you do is a reflection of your belief system. You are merely reducing your belief system in its duration of time to the concept of the seven-day week that is usually repeated over and over again.

Now look over the list. Is it at all similar to the described consensual model of reality explained on pages 119-120? Ask yourself why you did each of the activities. Record the answers in your journal. How much of your activities were obligatory? How many of your activities benefit the whole of humanity? The planet? Look at all of your activities objectively and ask: What type of belief would a person have to have to do ....? For example, if you work at a job that you do not like but feel obligated to for survival—what type of belief is this? Remember: The more material a belief, the more erroneous it is.

If you are not entirely happy with the world model that you have constructed and are now living in, don't worry, you can change it if you want to—but only if you are willing to do deep inner work to transform your belief systems. The first step is discovering the belief systems that you are now operating with. Your physical world and body will certainly change as you work at changing your beliefs. But not before.

Exercise 2: Imprinting the Triple Universe Model

Purpose: To become conscious of the always existing Triple Universe Model in your day-to-day operation. This understanding will expand the parameters of what you perceive.

First, when contemplating the different models of reality, it is helpful to keep the following three-step process in mind:

1. First, there exists an all-pervading field of intelligence
2. This field of intelligence is then populated by simple form design principles
3. From this simple form design principles emerge luminous code forms.

Pull out the black and white Triple Universe model from page 95. Read through it, then get out your colored pencils or magic markers and color it in creatively so as to imprint the information into your being.

Read carefully pages 121-125. If you are a serious student, you may want to write out all of the categories of the three universes in a creative format in your journal. This way, you can contemplate them in a different layout form, which will unlock further perceptions.

While doing the exercise contemplate the following questions and record the answers in your journal. How do you organize what you experience in the phenomenal realm? Is what you know merely a function of your sense perceptions? Are thoughts produced by sensations? Or are sensations produced by thoughts? What do parallel worlds have to do with the phenomenal universe? What does hunger have to do with the imaginal realm? What does PAN have to do with the moral universe? How do the Phenomenal, Imaginal and Moral universes relate to the Synchronic Order? These are just a few suggestions, see if you can think of more.

Exercise 3: Triple Universe Model in Action

Purpose: To make the Triple Universe Model real for you.

After you have thoroughly studied the Triple Universe Model, go spend a few hours at a busy time in a public place (such as a shopping mall, restaurant, sporting event or another crowded people place). Take your journal and sit somewhere where you can observe the scene. Is there an order or pattern? In your observation, consider each of the three Universes.

First, consider the Phenomenal Universe. What do your senses take in at this public place?— Note in your journal any smells, noises, conversations. Are the people experiencing pleasure? Pain? Is there music playing? If so, what kind? Is there more than one sound system that you can hear? How many people are on cell phones?

Now move to the Imaginal Realm and consider what the mall represents at a mythic level. Some kind of artificial materialist utopia? What does this have to do (if anything) with the spirit and soul? If this is a collective hologram, then consider where it is being projected from and for what purpose? Does it appear that the mall shoppers remember that this is all a dream?

Now slide into an observation of the Moral Realm. What seems to be mall “etiquette” or rules and norms of conduct? What kind of manners or social education are the people displaying? Is wisdom the highest social value? If not, what is or what seems to be? Does it appear that anyone is questioning the nature of reality? What feeling are you left with after leaving the mall?

You can continue to observe and reflect as many of the categories in the Triple Universe Model as you like. This is a fascinating study that you are sure to enjoy! After this, go to the beach or somewhere in nature away from habitations and sit there for the same amount of time. Observe the difference and write your observations.

Exercise 4: Crafting your Own Code of Ethics

Purpose: To evaluate your moral beliefs and create parameters in which to operate in the world in order to achieve the highest way of conduct.

“Once a human being establishes itself with a code of ethics, then it can develop deeper levels of insight.” Ch. 7

“If the purpose of life is to save and cultivate your soul, what is the best code of ethics to follow? What is the best way to behave in all situations?” Ch. 7

Read pages 129-142 regarding the moral universe. You will be making your own moral wavespell code of ethics. Study different codes of conduct from the different traditions. Remember that a code of ethics revolves around the purpose of life and helps give definition and a criterion for your conduct. Choose different precepts or quotes that represent the ideal conduct that you wish to live. Write all of these down. Then choose the 13 that most appeal to you and create your own Universal code of conduct to live by. Choose very carefully as this is a reprogramming/programming process, so make sure the codes reflect your highest ideals. Let these codes lead your thoughts into higher channels. Remember that to really deconstruct old thoughtforms you must insert something new to replace it. Think how each of these “codes” informs your conduct in different situations.

Memorize the 13 and then live them!

Exercise 5: Memorization Test

Purpose: To alter conditioned reflexes by inserting a new program.

Memorize the Dzogchen Self Replicating Cosmology of Enlightened Meditation 0-19 code as constructed by Valum Votan.

“The value of seeing the Absolute as already complete is that it reorients our perceptions to the already existing perfection of the Second Creation.”

1. Dragon: The Compassion for sentient beings has “already been performed since the beginning.” Dragon nurtures compassion for all beings.
2. Wind: The Mandala has “already been laid out since the beginning.” Wind communicates spirit, the essence of which is the mandala of the original cosmic order.
3. Night: The Offering (puja) has “already been made since the beginning.” Night dreams abundance heaped up as the limitless offering to the Divine One.
4. Seed: The Spiritual Conduct has “already been done since the beginning.” Seed targets the flowering of intrinsic awareness as the basis of Spiritual Conduct.
5. Serpent: The Dzogchen View has “already been realized.” Serpent manifests the view of cosmic life force as the self-realized instinct of original mind.
6. World-bridger: The Meditation has “already been developed.” World-bridger equalizes perception of self and other into the meditation that need not be created.
7. Hand: The Covenant has “already been kept.” Hand accomplishes the self-existing covenant binding all knowledge for the healing of the World Soul.
8. Star: The Spiritual Practice (sadhana) has “already been accomplished.” Star Beautifies the spiritual practice as the Elegance of Enlightenment.
9. Moon: The Attainment (siddhi) has “already been acquired.” Moon purifies the universal water of all the siddhis placing them in the flow of all mind-streams.
10. Dog: The twofold Accumulation of Merit has “already been completed.” Dog shares love universally as the accumulation of merit, both for himself and for all beings.
11. Monkey: The Attainment (siddhi) has “already been granted.” Monkey’s magic is in your being as all of the siddhis ready to dispel lower illusion whenever necessary.
12. Human: The highest Degree (bhumi) has “already been ascended to.” Human, uplifted to the highest Degree, dispenses wisdom impartially from atop the ladder of free will.

13. Skywalker: The Empowerment (abisheka) has “already been received.” Skywalker explores space as the empowerment of all-abiding wakefulness.
14. Wizard: The Obscuration has “already been cleared.” Wizard, enchanted by timelessness, is incapable of being obscured by anything.
15. Eagle: The Mahamudra (Great Symbol) meditation has “already been accomplished.” Eagle sees all reality as a sign of enlightenment.
16. Warrior: The Mantra has “already been recited.” Warrior’s intelligence is in the sacred syllables that are recited through him.
17. Earth: The Union-Practice has “already been done.” Earth, the indivisibility of all-evolving time and consciousness, is the Synchronicity (union-practice) of knower and known.
18. Mirror: The Distraction has “already been overcome.” Mirror reflects reality perfectly without distortion or distraction.
19. Storm: The Sign of Success has “already appeared.” Storm catalyzing energy is the success of the field needing the rain.
20. Sun: The Heat of Meditation “has already been generated.” Sun enlightens life as the universal fire of self-generating meditation.

Additional exercises:

Make up creative ways to contemplate the different moral universe models on pages 137-142. For example, on page 138, you find the Mayan Interdimensional Star Map. This will tune you into the fact that we live in an actual spiritual structure. This aids in the establishment of a type of spiritual/mental environment for our soul and our body so that we can gauge our movement in time. This is the natural structure of the imaginal universe. Always remember to take everything back to the microcosm of your own body so that you really feel the connection.

Also, study the Avatar’s Wheel of Time. See how it corresponds with the eight precepts of the Wheel of the Law in Buddhism, which also ties in with the moral universe. Are there other eights you can plug in here? How is history itself a reflection of the movement and pattern of the moral universe?

“The purpose of the new models of reality and stages presented in the Cosmic History is to assist you through the stages of evolution—so that you can wake up and remember why you are here.”
Ch. 7

CHAPTER 8: COSMOLOGY of TIME—THE FOUR PILLARS

Exercise 1: Imprinting the Four Pillars

Purpose: To become conscious of the always existing Four Pillar Model in your day-to-day operation. This understanding will expand the parameters of what you perceive.

“The Four Pillars graphic is an archetypal image meant to be meditated on in order to begin to experience and allow all those different levels of reality that are contained in your psychobiology to have expression and be brought forth into greater consciousness.” Ch. 8

Pull out the black and white Four-Pillar model from page 96. Read through it, then get out your colored pencils or magic markers and color it in a creatively coherent form so as to imprint the information into your being.

Read carefully pages 146-155. If you are a serious student, you may want to write out all of the categories of each of the four pillars in a creative format in your journal. This way, you can contemplate them in a different layout form, which will unlock further perceptions.

While doing the exercise, keep in mind that four is the number of form. Consider the following statements and record observations and answers to questions in your journal:

1. History: What does it mean that history is the form and structure that makes the other three pillars possible? Why is this?
2. How are different levels and orders of your life scientifically organized? Can you think of ways in which different orders of the universe are scientifically structured?
3. Philosophy: What is the highest philosophy of life? Is this the philosophy that you live by? What is the highest philosophy of the universe? (Remember that ethics, morality and issues of logic are also related to philosophy, as is mathematics.)
4. Religion: Think of the original purpose of religion, which simply means, “to bind back to one.” What are your feelings about religion? Is there a difference between personal religion and organized religion? Write down your vision of Universal Religion.

Exercise 2: Becoming the UR Dome

Purpose: To embody the four pillars through the four-pillar yoga pose.

(For best results, first thoroughly study four pillars graphic). Stand up straight. Now bend forward until your hands are flat on the ground (or as far as your current level of flexibility permits). Now arch your body up, with the intention of becoming the UR dome. Your spine is the rope of prophecy and revelation. Your arms and legs are the four pillars.

Your right arm is the first pillar: Cosmic History—Path of Knowledge of Time.

Your left leg is the third pillar: Cosmic Philosophy—Path of Wisdom.

Your right leg is the fourth pillar: Cosmic Religion—Path of the Mystic Way.

Feel each of the paths unfold into a set of stairs, with seven steps each. Each of the stairs contain one of the steps for that path. For example, let your left arm hang and feel a staircase with seven steps emerging, leading from your hand up to your shoulder. Imagine the different facets of knowledge written on each step. Though the list is endless, you can begin by using the steps shown in the four pillars graphic. Expand the amount of steps if you so desire. Do this for each of your limbs.

Congratulations! You have become the UR dome embodying the highest art of universal peace, universal human fellowship and harmonic cosmocracy. You are the living transcription of the higher collective voice!

Exercise 3: Tracing History

Purpose: To understand principles of history in order to up-level your own awareness and consciousness about the world.

“Everything is Cosmic History or a subset of Cosmic History.” Ch. 8

“History accounts for the stages of development of any naturally existing phenomenon and is a value or index in self-reflective consciousness.” Ch. 8

Consider how every person, place or thing has its own specific history. Consider how everything is programmed to occur at just the right time; not earlier and not later. Choose a subject that you are interested in and then investigate its history. It is best to choose a relatively limited subject with a definite history to achieve the aim of this exercise. For example, you might choose the history of the Internet, history of Tarot cards, history of electricity, or the history of the Theosophical Society. Note that there are as many histories as there are topics.

Make detailed observations of your study in your journal. Note the stages or progression of your subject into whatever it is or is not today. Looking at this pattern, can you project what it will become in the future? For example, if your subject is the history of the Tarot deck, you might ask questions such as: What was its original purpose? What need in human consciousness brought it about in the first place? How is it viewed today?

Note how most things become commercialized or profaned the closer you get to the present moment. What type of conditioned thinking has been formed around this? By what type of minds? Think about how organization is intrinsic to history. What does this mean? Inevitably, there are dates and successions involved in its unfolding. Now apply the synchronic order, look up important dates and view these through the lens of their fourth-dimensional oracle.

Exercise 4: Synesthetic Activation Exercise

Purpose: To understand how two or more terms or thoughts create an alchemical mind shift unlocking new information and thus revealing the interconnectedness of our world.

Choose one theme from each of the following five categories, so that you are working with five themes in all. Now write each of the titles in your journal, allowing at least two pages in between.

Meditate for a moment on each title, and then write a short 1-2 page essay on each of the five themes. Do not lift your pen until you have filled the allotted space. You might be surprised at what comes out.

Themes to choose from:

1. History of Sight, History of Sound, History of Taste, History of Touch, History of Smell, History of Extrasensory Perception
2. Science of Sight, Science of Sound, Science of Taste, Science of Touch, Science of Smell, Science of Extrasensory Perception
3. Philosophy of Sight, Philosophy of Sound, Philosophy of Taste, Philosophy of Touch, Philosophy of Smell, Philosophy of Extrasensory Perception
4. Religion of Sight, Religion of Sound, Religion of Taste, Religion of Touch, Religion of Smell, Religion of Extrasensory Perception
5. Art of Sight, Art of Sound, Art of Taste, Art of Touch, Art of Smell, Art of Extrasensory Perception

For added fun and creative expansion, keep a list of unusual subject combinations, like the Smell of Number or the Color of Dimensions or the Imagination of Magnets.

You might also find it interesting to write short galactic fairy tales based on the 4 pillars and the 20 solar seals. Example: The History of the Wind, The Philosophy of the Mirror, The Religion of the Dragon, or the Art of the Sun, etc...

Exercise 5: UR Activation Exercises: Creating Ceremony

Purpose: To release the highest energy into the noosphere, activating the field of Universal Recollection for all.

“Ceremony is a formal structure prescribed by a ritual—a form established to commemorate something. The main point of a ceremony is to make a connection with the sacred—to articulate the sacred order.” Ch. 8

Set aside some time when you will be alone and undisturbed for a given duration. It is recommended to first do this ceremony alone in order to keep the mind field focused and pure.

For maximum efficiency, first make a detailed outline of your ceremony, inclusive of a statement of intention. The main goal is to activate the highest unified vision of UR as the ultimate spiritual simplification of the human race, which is the primary Universal Recollection/Universal Religion.

It is recommended to use the Four-Part Cosmology of Cosmic History on page 147 as a template for your ceremony. The cosmology includes View, Meditation, Conduct and Fruit.

View: For this exercise, the view is Planet Earth and all of her inhabitants. You might want to begin your ceremony by lighting candles, incense etc. and stating aloud your intention. You will be heard.

Meditation: Contemplate the view and use your focused power of meditation to single pointedly envision all of the people on our planet (you can later expand out but for the sake of focus we will stick to the planet that we now inhabit). Really see all of these people in their day to day lives. Imagine what their living conditions might be. Feel with compassion their sufferings. It is helpful to have a world map out in front of you in order to help with this meditation.

Conduct: You may want to create certain affirmations of healing and remembrance to speak aloud to all of the people of the world. Send them thoughts of care and compassion.

Fruit: Now imagine all people of the world in a state of supreme cosmic awareness. Pure bliss. All troubles and obscurations have been removed. Form a detailed picture of how all of this looks: the sick become healed, all weapons dissolved, all anger disappears into the joy of creation. See in detail everyone and the entire Earth becoming entering the community of galactic intelligence. Remember that all of your envisioning creates a telepathic template that gets deposited into the noosphere.

CHAPTER 9: SUM MODEL

Exercise 1: Sphere of Influence

Purpose: To purify your mind stream in order to perceive new models of reality.

In your journal, draw a circle. Now draw a triangle in the center of the circle to represent the 3-part entity that you are. (See pages 114-115) One point of the triangle represents your third-dimensional being, one is your fourth-dimensional being and the last is your fifth-dimensional being. Now create various rays extending from the circle and write in brief answers to the following questions.

First think about all of the people who are currently in your life. In what ways do they influence your thinking and behavior? Think of what books you are currently reading and subjects that you are presently drawn to. What ideas are you currently contemplating? What is your living environment like? What foods/substances do you put into your body on a regular basis? What type of music do you listen to? Do you watch television or see movies? If yes, what kinds of programs do you view? Include anything else that you feel is relevant to get a full picture of your current “sphere of influence.” This should prove as a most useful template of self-reflection for you.

In looking over your sphere of influence—how much of it is useful for the evolution of your body/mind/spirit? Consider what type of influence each person or thing has in your overall attitude or mental environment. How can you uplift your field of influence? Make notes of any observations you find.

Exercise 2: Imprinting the SUM Model

Purpose: To become conscious of the always-existing Simultaneous Universe Model in your day-to-day operation.

“Focused study of the SUM model as well as the other Cosmic History models of reality is actually intended to help restructure our mind and knowing into larger comprehensive whole system orders of reality.” Ch. 9

Pull out the black and white Simultaneous Universe Model from page 97. Read through it, then get out your colored pencils or magic markers and color it in so as to imprint the information into your being.

Read carefully pages 160-169. If you are a serious student, you may want to write out all of the categories of each of the dimensions--highlighting the inner and outer organizational codes--in a creative format in your journal. This way, you can contemplate them in a different layout form, which will unlock further perceptions. While doing the exercise, contemplate the following questions and record the answers in your journal.

First, contemplate the fact that everything that has ever happened, is happening or will happen can be mapped and pinpointed in the radial matrix of the fourth dimension. Study and contemplate the function of each of the seven dimensions as seen in the graphic. Then contemplate the mirror universe dimensions (8-13) as described in Cosmic History. Write all observations in your journal. Where are the dimensions located? Are they outside of this universe? Are they within it? What does it mean that the seventh dimension is a mirrorless resonator?

Exercise 3: Exploring Radial Forms

Purpose: To further understand the perfect symmetry of creation.

Read pages 158-160. Begin by first contemplating the radial form of a tree with its trunk being the center. Do the same for plants, animals and insects or anything else seen in nature. You may want to make some sketchings in your journal.

Now contemplate the bilateral symmetry of humans. Meditate on what it means that your human form is the embodiment of the universal design formula. Consider in what ways your body is bilateral and radial. See what forms you can construct just by moving and connecting your different bodily parts? How many forms can your body create, separated or touching each other in different ways? How are you a circle? How are you a cube? A triangle? A square? These are the fundamental building blocks or form patterns. How many structures or mathematical formulations do you actually need to create the universe?

Now, turn your attention to Cosmic History. Feel how it lies down the central imaginal core of all phenomena. How, then, can you experience yourself as Cosmic History? If your spine and central nervous system are the core fields of Cosmic History, then the nerves extend to all parts of your body. Each part of your body contains different levels of knowledge. Ask questions to your different body parts. For example: "Right foot, what is your higher dimensional function?" or "Heart, how can I perceive your function in a higher way?" or "Right elbow, what area of knowledge do you represent?" Really question your body. It is helpful to draw your body as a map of knowledge. Make several radial body maps if you like.

Exercise 4: Accessing Your Astral Movies

Purpose: To realize how clarity, attentiveness and choice contribute to manifesting your “highest astral movie.”

After you have sufficiently studied the SUM graphic and read pages 170-171, you may be excited to find ways to trigger your highest astral movie. You can begin right now. The first step, of course, is to clean up your life and mind. Remember that each moment of decision potentiates the quality of the astral movie that will play out in the next moment. To access the highest movies, stay alert and keep choosing the highest response!

Over a period of a week, do the following experiment (you may want to keep your journal with you at all times): Every time that you are confronted with any type of decision or reaction (no matter how small it may seem), see if you can stop yourself in the moment in order to access the highest form of action, or nonaction. If you keep a journal of those moments and study the patterns, you will soon notice your entire reality shifting in a beautiful direction. Having seen for yourself the results of this experiment, vow to make every effort to continue this in your day-to-day life.

This concentrated effort of positive change will spontaneously open you into higher dimensions. Remember that all of the dimensions are already present here and now. However, the higher dimensions are only knowable through the mind, which is the medium of consciousness (just as space is the medium of the mind).

Exercise 5: Understanding the Electronic Universe

Purpose: Beginning contemplations for interdimensional travel.

“The fifth dimensional entity monitors both the living substance of life as well as the energetic component of pure atomic molecular life.” Ch. 9

First, spend some time contemplating your three-part entity: third, fourth, and fifth-dimensional. Invoke your fifth dimensional, which is a purely electronic being. Consider the following question: What is electricity in the higher realms? Consider what electricity has to do with interdimensional travel. Consider that this higher-dimensional electricity exists everywhere. If you focus on this, your ever-present fifth-dimensional will help you to understand.

Now think of the crude third-dimensional types of functions that electricity is used for in the modern world—like neon lights, elevators, carnival rides, etc. Make a list in your journal. This will give you a good “machine world” overview.

Consider that every thought form that you have contains an electrical charge. Positive thoughts contain positive charges. Negative thoughts contain negative charges.

Remember that all thoughtforms or created matter have a particular spin. The energy permutation patterns of each particular spin are stitched together by the sixth dimension.

Now consider that the fifth dimension is purely an electrical construct--every molecule has its electrical charge. This energy is transferred by electronic resonance to the fourth dimension.

Therefore, the only way to access these higher dimensions is by keeping your third-dimensional thought forms super positive.

Consider what would happen if we could harness all of the positive electrical charges that fill the noosphere. Could we construct another reality? Write down your vision of this.

CHAPTER 10: NOOSPHERE: THE NEW EARTH CONSCIOUSNESS

Exercise 1: Interactive Noosphere

Purpose: To raise awareness of the noosphere as the earth's mental envelope. (All communication actually comes from the noosphere).

Think about the Internet and make a list of its most useful characteristics and functions, such as:

1. Communicate with anyone anywhere instantaneously
2. Obtain any past recorded information on any subject
3. Obtain lists of subject categorization

Consider that when you type in a subject on the Internet, you get huge lists of information or stories related to the key words—but you can only get the results you desire by typing in very specific key words. The question is, how can we begin to use our minds in this way without a machine? Try this first without the Internet and then make an experiment using the Internet.

First, consider the word noosphere. Open your journal to a fresh page and write: “Noosphere is the total mind of the sum of life on our planet.” Now contemplate the meaning of the noosphere as the sum repository of all human thought. Focus on it in this way for at least 15 ticks of the tock—write down everything that comes to you regarding the meaning of the noosphere, based on whatever level of knowledge that you might have about it. Keep writing down what comes into your mind until all impressions and ideas naturally stop.

Now go to your computer and type in the word “noosphere” or “what is the noosphere?” Scan the list. Chances are you will get some relevant information but the rest may be a lot of commercial hogwash—like noosphere Internet services, noosphere projects, etc. Analyze all of this—be discriminating. How much useful information did you find? How much unnecessary information? What do each of these results have to do with the spiritual evolution of our species?

Now compare what you wrote in your journal about the noosphere with what the Internet had to say about it.

Exercise 2: Interactive Noosphere Part II/Imagining

Purpose: To begin envisioning machine-free mental/spiritual evolution.

Imagine being able to perform all of the services provided by the Internet through your own mind, communicating with anyone you wish, anywhere in this world or any other world at any given time. Imagine having instant access to all of the astral libraries on any subject at any given time. All you have to do is direct your focus and the results are immediate. Describe in detail in your journal what this world is like.

What stops you from experiencing this now? Are you continuously recycling old thoughts? Do you have indiscriminate thought overload? If so, clean them out. Is it possible to generate new thoughts to deposit into the noosphere? Thoughts that we think are new inevitably come from a higher intelligence. Does this higher intelligence live in a world that has a noosphere? What types of worlds have noosphere? Which do not?

Only when everyone is living in accord with the natural timing frequency and adhering to a natural diet is the planetary mental hook-up possible. Why? Because then everyone will be in a heightened state of mental clarity due to tuning in daily to the same source and by concentrating on the unifying telepathic codes of time.

Now put on your supermental thinking cap and consider this: If the noosphere has embedded within it the principles of the Cosmic History then how does the SUM model with its higher dimensional universe fit in? Does this model transcend the noosphere? Is it possible to think outside of the noosphere? How many noospheres are there in the mind of God? What does the reality of the noosphere mean for us on Earth? What implication does it have to know that the Earth has an actual “thinking layer” that is the sum repository of all thought?

Exercise 3: Busting Through the Brick Wall

Purpose: Clearing the blocks to reveal the higher thinking layers.

Draw a brick wall with 52 bricks. Allow enough space to write a few things in each brick. Imagine each brick as an individuated storage unit for specific accumulated perceptions beginning at your Earth birth.

Recall yourself as early back as you can and begin writing in simple beliefs that you were taught about the world, particularly in the area of God/religion, body/food, money, other people, codes of conduct, etc. Keep them very simple like: "Hide your feelings." "Donuts are rewards." "People are crazy." "You are smart." "You are stupid." "Democrats are better than Republicans." "Jesus Christ is Lord." etc. Just write them down, both "good" beliefs and "bad" beliefs. Just keep going. Make sure to fill in all 52 spaces. After you have completed this, put it away and then come back to it a little later.

Now is the time for the brick wall bust-through. Look at your list, as objectively as possible. This list represents the thick brick in your head that you must bust through in order to clearly access the noosphere and experience telepathy. These beliefs are the learned responses programmed into your brain. Keep in mind this brick wall is a microcosm of the collective brick that keeps reality locked into this particular consensual system. Now think about it. How do these early programs affect your current behavior and responses? Be honest with yourself. How can you set yourself up to have different responses in order to dissolve these old beliefs?

Exercise 4: Becoming an Earth Cube

Purpose: To familiarize and gain direct experience of the Earth's parts.

Turn to the graphic of the Earth's parts on page 181. Either photocopy from the back of this workbook (p. 93), or draw a 16-unit grid in your journal. This is your template. It represents the 16-year Cube of the Law. (For more about this see the 20 Tablets of the Law of Time or the Telektonon.)

Notice the numbers and glyphs associated with each of the 16 units. 1. Dragon 2. Wind 3. Night, etc. Now fill in the 16 main parts of the Earth as seen on page 181. Begin with the outer point (electromagnetic field) as the first. This means you will write "electromagnetic field" in Cube 1: Dragon and so on. Here is the cube fill-in formula:

1. Electromagnetic field 2. Radiation Belts 3. Ionosphere 4. Stratosphere 5. Troposphere 6. Atmosphere 7. Biosphere 8. Technosphere 9. Hydrosphere 10. Crust 11. Tectonic Plates 12. Outer mantle 13. Inner mantle 14. Tympanum inner mantle 15. Core 16. Crystal Core

Research the function of each of the parts and make notes in your journal. Try to include as much detail as possible about its third-dimensional function and its higher-dimensional function.

For example, in the Crystal Core, located in Cube 16--Warrior region, you might write: "Crystal Core: Gyroscope—keeps sphere moving steadily in its course of orbit. On higher dimensions: Place where the solar programs are downloaded. Crystal core is an octahedron which has four faces above and four below, analogous to the psi bank with its bipolar plates." Don't forget to consider the aspects of the Warrior: Question, Fearlessness and Intelligence. Putting all of this together opens up infinitely creative dimensions.

The key is to use your creativity to become familiar with the Earth as a living system. If you really study, you will be amazed at what starts to unravel for you!

Exercise 5: Introducing Yourself to the Psi Bank

Purpose: Reprogramming the human software to become a homo-noosphericus.

Write the following statement in your journal and then commit it to memory:

“The noosphere is the sum capacity for the input of different ranges of sentiency and thought that occur across the range of life in all of its diversity since the beginning of the evolution of life on the planet.” Ch. 10

Turn to the psi bank graphic on page 94. Really, contemplate that everything that has ever been thought, said, felt is registered into the psi bank contained in the noosphere.

Recall that you are a thinking, speaking, feeling being—now see that your biological mechanism or neurocerebral/biological mechanism is merely the literal mouthpiece for the noosphere. Go back to workbook exercise in Chapter 1 where you kept track of your thoughts. Can you map out and categorize the varieties of thoughts that you have? See if you can categorize them into as few categories as possible i.e. Past Worries, Future Projections, Current Absorptions, etc. How many of these thoughts transcend personal interest? How many thoughts do you feel are coming from the planet/noosphere’s point of view? Write reflections in your journal.

See that the psi bank operates on both north/south hemispheres, as well as in each of the four seasons as the Earth revolves around the sun. Make note of the perfection of this form and recall that the psi bank exists within the noosphere between the Van Allen radiation belts (see previous ‘Earth Cube’ exercise).

Contemplate the fact that the psi bank regulator is not only a storage unit for all thoughts, but is also a container for all of the knowledge of the evolutionary timing codes.

Once again, remember that you are evolving into a “homonoosphericus” whose thoughts, words and actions (electromagnetically directed) are the literal mouthpiece of the noosphere.

CHAPTER 11: MULTIDIMENSIONAL PARANORMALITY AND COSMIC SCIENCE

Exercise 1: Dreaming Awake

Purpose: To activate dreamtime for increased wakefulness.

“To attain paranormal powers requires exertion, discipline of mind and effort—and even then—the effort is not to attain powers. “ Ch. 11

One area of multidimensional paranormality that we may take for granted is dreaming. Take into account that there is another life that you live “over there” when you are fast sleep “over here.”

Learning to become a waking dreamer can do wonders in altering your here-and-now reality. If you don't already have one, it is helpful to keep a dream journal in order to be more aware of your nighttime activity. Record your dreams first thing upon awakening as that is when your level of retention is at its peak.

Before you go to sleep at night, set the intention to fully recall the other “you.” Say to yourself: “Not only will I remember my dreams, but also in my dreams I will wake up and be conscious of myself in the dream.” When you lie down to go to sleep, focus your attention on a luminous white “A” or “Ah” radiating out from your solar plexus. You may even repeat “Ah” over and over to yourself while visualizing. This will create a sufficient opening.

If you follow these instructions on a regular basis (minimum 28 days), you will begin to experience yourself becoming increasingly “awake” in your dreams. When this first happens, try not to get overly excited, but rather, keep calm and cool, studying, absorbing and observing this “dream” reality until you get the hang of how it works. Be respectful of whatever “dream” characters that you may encounter or in whatever “dream” environment that you may find yourself in. In this way, you will more easily be able to learn, grow and remember on the astral plane.

Exercise 2: Practicing Hypnogic Reverie

Purpose: To begin to experience other realms.

Another area of multidimensional paranormality related to the previous exercise is what is referred to as hypnogic reverie.

It is best to do this exercise during the day, but when you are a slight bit sleepy. Lie down somewhere comfortable and close your eyes. Stay as conscious as possible while letting your body relax. Feel yourself becoming heavier, while keeping your awareness intact. Take special note of how this state (between waking and dreaming) feels as you will want to become more and more familiar with it.

You want to find the point or the intermediated state between waking consciousness and sleep. You may note that there are very rapid streams of images. You might even hear words, conversations, or sounds. Where are these taking place? Can you make sense of them? Do you recognize any coherent patterns or forms? Could it be that you have tapped into the noosphere's stream of consciousness? Record your observations in your journal—or write a poem or draw a picture of your experiences. If you don't succeed the first time, try again—you will eventually get the hang of it. Practice this state regularly to keep your inspiration flowing.

Exercise 3: Constructing the Cosmic Human

Purpose: To understand the functioning of your etheric structure.

Make a list of what you consider paranormal phenomenon. Study the graphic on page 197 “Chakra Biopsychic Generator.” This represents the interior of the chakra system (see page 71). Make several large simple outlined drawings of the human body.

Begin constructing the internal system of the new cosmic human. First, draw or make copies of seven cosmic “citiobarico” cellular plasmic generators. Cut and paste these generators into the chakras of your outlined human. Once you have all seven in place, you may want to draw an outline of the chakra with its corresponding color around the internal generator. Once this is complete, sit quietly and attentively contemplating your cosmic human. Open your senses and merge your chakra points into these generators—really feel how this works.

The goal is to begin to understand how your inner chakra system and etheric structure functions. Only when you gain a thorough understanding of your own energy system can you become a conscious facilitator of the transformation of the planetary mental field.

Please note: Each of the “generators” is also a replica of the “resonant field model” in Exercise 4 in Chapter 4. In looking at the graphic, you can then see that there are 12 “neutrinos” that make up each of the 3 fields: gravitational, electromagnetic and biopsychic.

Exercise 4: Contemplating Your Mental Spheres

Purpose: Becoming acquainted with the functioning of your six mental spheres.

Read pages 199-201. Observe the graphic on page 199, focussing on the preconscious sphere. Draw it in your journal. Note its location and function. Keep in mind that the six mental spheres are connected to the third, fourth and fifth-dimensional functioning. Their function is to provide the human capacities to link with interdimensional information.

Do you understand what experience is signified by each of the six mental spheres? Consider “preconscious” as literally the same as deep, dreamless sleep. Though you are not aware, your bodily autonomic functions are all active. The unconscious is the vast storehouse of dreams and visions, which only arise when some trigger occurs. The conscious is your normal, every day waking state. It is literally moment-to-moment. The continuing conscious is cultivated through the experience of meditation and concentration in conjunction with the system of codes which define the synchronic order. The superconscious is characterized by those experiences in which our mind seems to expand far beyond the limitations of our skin and our ego, to encompass all time and the Universe. These are the glimpses that we have of superconsciousness. Finally, subliminal conscious is experienced as those peripheral experiences like deja vus, fleeting flashes of past or future lives.

Notice that at the center of each mental sphere is an aggregate of analphas, electrical fluid created by the interaction of two partons that give rise to thinking or the capacity to form thoughts. Call upon your imaginal realm to assist you in creating a graphic of these analphas. Record any observations that you may have in your journal. What analphic engravings are playing out of your noospheric chip at this given moment?

Therefore, if you remember something, think of how this memory might actually consist of a series of “analphs.” Consider what part of the memory that each analph might contain. In this way, you can be more precise with the questions that you ask yourself about the analphic engravings.

Exercise 5: Creating a Power Object

Purpose: You set the intention and create the purpose.

Arouse your imaginal realm. Choose a power object that speaks to you, then create it out of the most natural items possible, preferably those found in nature. Set a strong intention for the object, which could be anything from a galactic wand, a memory stick, a set of 24 runes made from stones, a communication stick, etc. You could include feathers, stones, crystals, beads, etc. Be as mindful as possible while creating it. The important point is to let your natural instinct find the objects for you.

The idea of a power object is that it represents in the imaginal realm a very specific attribute of mind or mind energy. In other words, it is the mind that endows the object with its powers. Therefore, everything chosen for the object has to be done with the consciousness of what the object represents according to the particular mental energy.

If you are successful in remaining conscious about the quality of energy that you are projecting into the object, then it should be apparent to any sensitive person who picks up that object that it has powers. Your object will tell you when, where and how to use it.

CHAPTER 12: CEREMONIAL MAGICK

Exercise 1: Circle and the Square

Purpose: To experience the magickal effects of form.

In consideration of ceremonial magick, do the following experiment. Somewhere on the ground in the dirt or an earthen area draw a 3 ft. circle and sit in the center of it. See if you can orient yourself to where east is. Once you have found east, know if you face east your right is south, left is north and back is west. Think about this. Your body has these intrinsic directions. Feel what is the effect of being in a circle. Is it a protective parameter? What does it define?

In the same earthen ground, make a square as perfectly as you can, maybe 3 ft by 3ft. Again, see if you can orient one of the sides to the east so that the other sides are naturally north, west and south. Sit in the center of this. First, face east and feel the south to your right, the north to your left and the west to your back. What does it feel like to be sitting in a square? How does it feel different from sitting in a circle? Is it better protection? What kind of energy does the square have as distinct from the circle?

Now, face each of the directions--is there any difference between them? What do you feel? Record or make a drawing of your experiences in your journal.

Exercise 2. Ceremonial Magick of the Noosphere

Purpose: Activating the earth as noospheric time within yourself.

Ceremonial magick is the practice of activating the noosphere. Since the noosphere is coordinated by the Law of Time, it can be activated both on a daily basis and according to your own knowledge of who you are in the Dreamspell. In this and the following exercise we will study the graphic on p. 210. This exercise is an example of everyday ceremonial magick for transforming the nature of reality.

Do you know the kin of the day? Let's say, for example, it is Red Lunar Skywalker, kin 93. Locate Skywalker on the Planet Holon. Can you find it there in the South Atlantic Ocean between South Africa and the the South East Coast of Brazil and South America? Visualize that part of the world as if from high above the Earth. Then note that Skywalker belongs to the Signal earth family, and it is connected to the Solar Plexus chakra.

Now, transfer the visualization of the South Atlantic ocean into your Solar Plexus. Feel that part of the earth broadcasting through your solar plexus. As you do this, think to yourself: "May the Skywalker zone of Earth be inseparable from my Solar Plexus, may I become one with the Earth."

Now, following the daily kin of the Thirteen Moon calendar, you will do this exercise for the next nineteen days, until you return to the next Skywalker day (or whatever kin it is that you begin the exercise). Each day do the visualization of that part of the Earth that corresponds to the zone of the daily kin, locating it in your chakra system. Keep a journal of this exercise, noting any unusual sensations of the Earth in your chakras.

Also note that each of your five major chakras has four seals, four colors and four directions associated with it: Red seal (E), White seal (N), Blue seal (W), Yellow seal (S). This means when you are complete in 20 days, each chakra will have its four directional gates sealed with one of 20 planetary holon zones. That means in 20 days you will have wrapped the planet around your chakras! The Earth is in you as you are in the Earth. Now think of continuing with this exercise until 2012 - won't this help manifest the noosphere into becoming our everyday reality? - and what will it do to your consciousness?

Exercise 3. Ceremonial Magick of the Noosphere: Part II

Purpose: Taking telepathic ownership of your planet holon zone.

This is the second part of the exercise connected with the graphic on p. 210. While the previous practice depends on knowing the daily kin, this one depends on knowing to which Earth family your galactic signature belongs.

Step 1. Knowing your earth family. Whatever solar seal you are - for example, Skywalker - your earth family is then located as one of the four seals in one of the five horizontal rows on the left side of the graphic. What this means is that on your birthday you are always rotating through these four seals (See earlier 52-year destiny exercise). In staying with our example - Skywalker - note that you are in the Signal family. Locate this also in the Planet Holon. this means that you are always rotating through the south temperate zones of the Planet Holon.

But also note that, in this example, Skywalker is also a member of the White Truth Clan. But every year you also change clans. This means that the Signal family, for instance, codes the four clans in the solar plexus of both your body and the Planet Holon. The point is that in the Planet Holon the special zone of the Signal family is the south temperate. This is your zone to cherish and protect through your telepathic “ownership” of it. Wherever your Earth Family is, locate the zone on the Planet Holon and familiarize yourself with it. Study it, feel its qualities in your solar plexus or in whichever chakra your Earth Family is located.

Note then your native clan - the clan to which your galactic signature assigns you. In this example, Skywalker belongs to the White Truth Clan. See the diagonal zone the White Truth Clan occupies on the planet holon. Note that the Skywalker role is to “receive” the energy as it comes down from the Dog zone in the North Pole, through the Monkey and the Human who transduces the energy and Skywalker then receives it. From Skywalker then, the energy is passed on to the White Wizard in the South Pole completing the energy process of the White Truth clan.

Feel the vital role your particular native zone plays in the Planet Holon, both in the horizontal Earth Family sequence and in the diagonal Truth Clan sequence. Wherever you find your seal to be, feel the dynamic of the psychic energy which this zone holds between the two flows.

As an act of enduring ceremonial magick, know that this particular zone with its psychic energy flows is yours to protect on behalf of the noosphere and the biosphere. Study all you can about this zone. What problems does it have due to excessive waste and 12:60 mismanagement? Tune into these and see in what ways you can help through your own service to the planet, both telepathically and economically. Think that, from where you live, to this zone, there is a constant telepathic stream of good vibrations that you are sending out.

Exercise 4. Channeling the Seven Rays

Purpose: Experience Hierarchy, Channel the Seven Rays.

Ceremonial magick requires extraordinary suspension of our acquired beliefs. One of these beliefs relates to the notion of hierarchy.

The 12:60 world has created a false vision of hierarchy - heavy-handed, topdown, autocratic authoritarian, male-dominated vatican, neo-babylonian priest class corporate power structures, etc. This is an artificial, ego-centered construct and distorted perception that has nothing to do with genuine hierarchy.

“Shambhala is organized by hierarchy, moving everything into a total pattern of true New Age vision. Hierarchy is the normal order of the universe. This is a methodical process. Ceremonial Magick is scientific in the way it represents an order in conformity with hierarchy and with the actual natural laws that govern the resonance of the noosphere and the biosphere ... {with this in mind} ... You must understand your role as a seventh ray actor in the process of making the transition for the now disintegrated sixth ray civilization into the seventh ray order of ceremonial magick.” Ch. 12

To understand hierarchy better, think of yourself in relation to the sun. Think of the size and the grandeur of the sun. Think of yourself physically in relation to the sun. You are a mere cell of the planetary biosphere. Does the sun know who you are? Does it even care about you? Probably not. But the sun dispenses its life-giving glory to you in ample and impartial abundance! This is because the sun is of a higher order of reality than you. This is how genuine hierarchy works. You are actually a channel for the higher level energy.

Now think of the seven rays as thought beams channeled by the sun from yet a higher level source, and then channeled to and by you by process of attunement. Now study the graphic on p. 218. Contemplate each of the seven rays. After you have meditated on each of the first six rays, ten minutes each, can you feel how the first three rays create a descent into your being? Can you feel how the fourth ray catalyzes, then there is a process of ascent through the fifth and sixth rays? Now envision yourself receiving the seventh ray. Envision yourself being initiated as the planet sorcerer - what would that ceremony be like? This should be an act of the highest magick possible. Design the ceremony so you can accommodate the influx of the power of the higher-dimensional hierarchy as it is being channeled directly to you on behalf of the Earth!

Exercise 5. Earth Renewal Rite

Purpose: To create planetary ceremonies in tune with the Earth and unifying all of the people.

Everything about ceremonial magick as it is being redefined by Cosmic History is to bring about the empowerment of the planet sorcerer in you. Ultimately all Cosmic History rites of ceremonial magick extend your perceptions into the Earth, and the Earth into the temple of your inner being. To accomplish this:

“We must have synchronized ceremonial events occurring regularly to establish a program for the new planetary order (the seventh ray) to come into being to bring order out of chaos ... This harmonic order, then, becomes the basis of the cultivation of a new kind of perspective and mentality of the human species. We need a new planetary sensibility - the way to do this is through equinox, solstice and Day Out of Time rites and celebrations, so as to establish a new planetary program. These celebrations are natural, no one can deny when it is equinox or solstice. These events occur regardless of any ideology, religion or belief system.” (p.220)

You may wish to study the section on Noospheric Earth Time in Time and Technosphere, pp. 125-132. Keeping in mind that the Earth operates on a four phase cycle annually. When it is spring in the North it is autumn in the South; when it is winter in the South it is summer in the North. When it is autumn in the North it is spring in the South; when it is summer in the South it is winter in the North.

Think about how the Earth is actually always in balance with itself. Think of how this registers in the four psi bank plates which are aligned to accommodate these four phases. Then consider how you would design a series of annual interlinked ceremonies for all people of the Earth to celebrate the harmony and balance of Earth on each of these occasions. In other words, think, for instance, that a ceremony for spring in the north is a ceremony for autumn in the south - the spring is looking toward the expansion of life, while the autumn is looking toward the closing of the life cycle.

Think of how each of the four annual ceremonies should represent the balance of energies and powers represented by these four points of Earth in her rotation around the “sun king.” Think of how all the people of the Earth should be made aware of the simultaneity of the opposite powers occurring at each of these points. Think of these ceremonies as Earth Renewal Rites for balancing the cosmic powers. Practice these ceremonies with your friends and associates.

CHAPTER 13: SYNTHESIS: SIGNIFICANCE OF THE NUMBER SEVEN.

Exercise 1: Seven in the Cube

Purpose: To experience the number seven as a living reality.

Consider the number 7. What do you know about it? What is its significance? Why is seven considered a lucky number? Start considering and research the prevalence unconsciously or consciously of the social programs, even in historical materialism related to the number seven. Begin by listing as many “sevens” as possible: i.e. 7 days of the week, seventh heaven, seven deadly sins, etc. Consider how this is actually the power of the primordial seven, which is so indestructible that it survives in all of these other forms.

Now consider that the seven is the invisible center holding together the six-sided cube. Consider constructing a life size cube that you can sit in. Maybe you can find five pieces of poster board or four-foot square pieces of cardboard. You can tape three of the sides to the top and to each other. Leave the fourth side taped to the top but not to the sides so you can go in and out. Sit inside of the cube, and see what you experience. If it is too dark, perhaps you can bring a flashlight so you can have a sense of what it is like to be the number seven inside of a cube. Consider that your heart is at the center of the cube. Note the quality of experience that you have in your journal.

Exercise 2: Unfolding the Power of Seven

Purpose: Realizing a whole number ratio as the basis of a personal cosmology of Seven: become the Avatar!

Read pages 229-231. See the graphic on p. 231 “4:7::7:13.” You will see that the graphic demonstrates that four is the absolute center of seven spheres, just as seven is the absolute center of thirteen spheres. How can we bring this home and find this prime ratio sequence of the Law of Time within our own body? According to the principle of holonomic resonance, this should be so!

Let's start with the number four. You have four extremities: two arms - a right day arm and left night arm; and two legs - a right day leg and left night leg. Let your arms reach into the cosmic sky, let your legs reach down into the cosmic Earth. Through these four extremities you are cosmically connected to the universal night and day.

Now, let's make seven! Your body, the central axis of the universe from which the four extremities extend, has three principle parts: head, which holds the thinking center, chest, which contains the feeling and breathing center and the abdomen, which contains the processing plants. With the four extremities, these three principle body parts make seven.

So, now we have the four is to seven - 4:7. You can think of the first part of this ratio as a demonstration of your body as a cosmic temple: think of the three parts - head, chest and abdomen - and what functions they perform for the circulation of universal life, while the four extremities connect the temple to heaven and earth.

Now let's go to the ::7:13, as seven is to thirteen.

Staying with the body as the central axis, we see the neck and spine as the seventh articulation of the body, with six matching articulations on either side of it to make thirteen articulations in all, so then we have the 7:13 in the following way:

right shoulder 6
neck and spine 7
left shoulder 8
left elbow 9
left wrist 10
left hip 11

So with the four extremities and the three main body parts, along with the spine and the six articulations on either side, you can see how you literally embody the prime ratio of the Law of Time, 4:7::7:13! This will help you think of your body as a cosmic template. For instance, the thirteen articulations also mean your body is analogous to a wavespell, the form constant of fourth-dimensional time.

Think of your body as the embodiment of cosmic time as well. See how the first 4:7 creates seven elements, while the second, 7:13 creates 13 for a sum total of 20 parts. Note then how this 20 is recapitulated in the 20 fingers and toes to make you a perfect 13:20 timing frequency embodiment.

“Those who engender Cosmic History have to be absolutely identified with the cosmic through using their earthly bodies as instruments.” p. 244. This is what the avatar exemplifies. If you can realize your body as a cosmic template through the embodiment of the ratio 4:7::7:13 as the unfolding of the power of seven, then you, too, can become the avatar, reconstructing yourself as being none other than the original interval of lost time in Eternity!

As the final part of these exercises in cosmic identification, think of and perform a simple dance that utilizes your body as the reconstruction of the Lost Interval of Time in Eternity. Feel the cosmic transmission coming through your instrument.

Exercise 3. Contemplating: Seven Stages of Evolution

Purpose: Recapitulate in your own life the evolution of consciousness in the Moral Universe.

First, study the list of the seven stages of the evolution of consciousness in the moral universe on p. 240. Take seven pages in your notebook and on the top of each page write down one each of the stages. Think of each of these stages as corresponding to one of the seven stages of your own life. (You might recall Shakespeare's famous description of the seven stages of life, as well). By seeing these stages of consciousness as corresponding to stages of your own life, you might get a better comprehension of the nature of the evolution of cosmic consciousness.

1. Absolute Oceanic Consciousness.

Think of this stage as the time when you were in the womb, the time before you were born. Go into that period of your life - pre-birth - and even preconception, if you will. Feel and try to imagine how that might be like "Absolute Oceanic Consciousness. Write down whatever comes to you about this time and how it is like absolute oceanic consciousness.

2. Birth of ego (which gives rise to unconscious and diminishing consciousness).

When does this occur? Why does ego create the unconscious? What is ego – differentiation of self from the world identified with your body. Think of how that would create an unconscious realm. And then think, why does consciousness diminish with the birth and maintenance of the ego? Can you remember when you first thought of yourself as an "individual" attached to the name you were given at birth? Think how much a given name establishes or solidifies the ego. What if you had no name? Write down your reflections.

3. Moral awakening consciousness.

You can think of this kind of awakening as coupled with a sense of the limitations of the ego. Can you define moments when your ego came up against its limits? How did you respond? What did you learn? Can you say if you ever had a moral awakening? Think about it. Describe this experience or experiences. Describe how such a moral awakening changed your life. Describe how you seek to become a morally better person.

4. Liberated consciousness.

This means consciousness liberated from ego, the ultimate object of pursuing moral consciousness. To be liberated from ego is to experience "non-ego." Have you ever experienced non-ego? How so? Describe your experiences. Think of life without ego. Describe what that might be like. Think of everybody liberated from ego. What would that be like? Could there be such a thing as enlightened society?

5. Universal compassionate consciousness—noospheric.

How or why would liberated consciousness lead to universal compassionate consciousness? Why do you think this is also referred to as "noospheric" consciousness? If the noosphere is the mind of Earth, does this mean that when the noosphere becomes consciously activated that we will live in a compassionate society? Think about it and describe your feelings about this, how could this come about and what that might be like?

6. Wise old wizard consciousness (totally self-transcendent as to appear normal).

How do you account for this stage of consciousness? Can you imagine yourself as a wise old wizard? Go into the imaginal realm and describe briefly how you envision your life at this stage of consciousness.

7. Oceanic consciousness (return to galactic source).

Do you believe in the survival of consciousness after death? Do you believe there is a "Hereafter?" What is the relation of cosmic consciousness to consciousness after death? Think about your own post-mortem soul and consciousness survival. Describe your thoughts and feelings about this. How is it different from the first stage of "Absolute Oceanic Consciousness"?

Exercise 4. Cubing Your Soul

Purpose: Visualization/meditation—To experience the cubing of your soul as the method of its perfection.

“When we get to the seven, which is the cube or the cubing of the soul, this creates the perfection of the human soul.” Ch. 13

On p. 233, there is a list of the “Seven Stages of the Perfection of the Human Soul.” What we will do in this exercise is take each of the seven stages and create an imaginal cube. First of all, write each of these down in your notebook, and commit them to memory.

Then on p. 258 is a description of the story of creation as a cube form. In this exercise we will associate the seven stages of the perfection of the human soul with these seven stages of the creation of the cube in the following manner:

1. First stage of the perfection of the human soul, “perfection of the perception of heaven” corresponds to the top of the cube;
2. The second stage, “perception of the meaning of Earth,” corresponds to the bottom of the cube;
3. The third stage, “perception of the meaning of light and vision,” creates the front of the cube;
4. The fourth stage, “meaning of darkness and dreaming,” creates the back of the cube;
5. “Perfection of the meaning of the orders of time” creates the right side of the cube;
6. “Perfection of the meaning of enlightenment and illumination” creates the left side of the cube;
7. The center of the cube is the place of the perfection of the meaning of the soul’s perfecting itself.

Having memorized the seven stages of the perfection of the human soul, sit with eyes closed in your imaginal cube, feel the six sides of the cube around you with each of their six perfections. Now feel yourself, the very essence of your life, as the meaning of the soul’s perfecting itself. Really feel the perfection of the meanings given to each of the six sides of the cube. Know that any time you need to, you can sit down and meditate this cube and the seven perfections of the human soul. When you complete the meditation, visualize streams of rainbow light radiating from your heart in great waves of compassion for all beings.

Exercise 5: Rainbow Bridge Meditation

Purpose: To visualize and project the manifestation of the noosphere as an irrevocable phenomenon of every day life.

The purpose of this Meditation is to generate a telepathic wave of love that connects ourselves with the center of the Earth, with the bipolar rainbow alternators that hold Earth's magnetic fields in place, and with all of the other planetary kin who are doing the same meditation. By establishing this world-wide telepathic Earth wave we are creating a matrix of communication which brings the noosphere - Earth's mental envelope - ever closer into conscious manifestation. This matrix also provides a protective field of genuinely positive thought vibrations meant to maintain Earth's resonant field in a state of harmony and peace.

The goal of this annual meditation exercise is to actually manifest Earth's Rainbow bridge - the day-night alternators of Earth's magnetic field - by the closing of the cycle, Winter (North) Summer (South) Solstice, 2012.

This Rainbow Bridge is the bridge of peace long prophesied that will permanently connect the third-dimensional Earth with the fourth and higher dimensions, assuring a peace and harmony that will not be able to be broken. In order that all beings may participate in this meditation, whether or not they have ever heard of the synchronic order, we offer this universal version of the Day Out of Time Rainbow Bridge World Peace Meditation.

You may do this alone or in a group - early in the day is best, but whenever you do it is fine. If you are in a group, gather in a circle if you can, seated on the ground or floor if possible, with your legs crossed. Take a few deep breaths, inhaling what is negative, transmuting that within yourself and then exhaling what is positive and purifying. Then close your eyes. Visualize that you are in the center of the Earth. Then visualize the giant octahedron crystal core. Four faces of the crystal end in a point along the North polar axis. The other four join at a point aligned with the South polar axis. Surrounding the giant octahedron crystal is the Earth's inner membrane, like a drum resonating the surface of the outer Earth. The Northern half of the crystal has two red and two white faces; the Southern half has two blue and two yellow faces.

Now you go inside the crystal.

In the center of this giant crystal is an intensely blazing point of white light. An etheric column or axis of light extends North and South from the blazing center point through the tips of the octahedron going on to the North and South poles at the Earth's exterior. Around this etheric vertical magnetic axis of light, are two intertwined flux tubes through which plasmic energy is continuously passing. Coiled around each other like the two strands of DNA, the flux tubes are red and blue in color. They deliver plasma—electrically charged ions—to the blazing point at the center of the Earth.

Strung on the northern axis of this column of light with the two flux tubes wound around it is the red time atom. Around the southern axis of light is the blue time atom. The red and blue polar time atoms turn in opposite directions to each other, the red northern time atom in a clockwise direction, the blue southern time atom in a counterclockwise direction. The time atoms consist of seven points: a center point, two points at either end of the vertical axis, and two points each—four points in all—equidistant to each other on either side of the central axis. The six outer points of the time atoms are almost in the shape of a hexagon, a six-sided figure.

The gravitational plane of the octahedron crystal emanates horizontally out from the blazing luminous center of the crystal, extending to the four points that mark the edges of the crystal, where the four northern and four southern faces of the octahedron meet. The gravitational plane connecting these four points is like the base of two pyramids - one pyramid extends from this base with four faces to the northern point of the octahedron, and the other four faces to the southern point. Along this gravitational plane exactly opposite each other are two more time atoms: a white one and yellow one. These two gravitational time atoms are constructed just as the red and blue polar time atoms, except that their two axial points are aligned with the gravitational plane, lying on their side as it were and perpendicular to the polar time atoms. These white and yellow time atoms turn around like paddle wheelers making a slow circular motion, counterclockwise, from left to right around the central point of blazing luminosity.

Once you have visualized the octahedron crystal core of the Earth with its eight faces, four time atoms, etheric column of light and two flux tubes, then visualize that from the center of the crystal a great stream of multicolored plasma filled light shoots up in both directions toward both of Earth's poles. Now you have gone from the center of the Earth to a point out in space where you are seeing the whole Earth. While you can still see the crystal octahedron at the center of the Earth, at the North and South poles the stream of light shoots out to become a great double rainbow bridge—the day alternator and the night alternator of Earth's magnetic field made visible. Two rainbow streams connect the North and South Poles of the Earth, exactly 180 degrees apart from each other. As the Earth slowly revolves on its axis, this rainbow bridge remains steady and constant, unmoving.

Once you have completed the visualization, take the whole Earth revolving beneath the rainbow bridge and place it in your heart. Imagine the two streams of light shooting out through your central column above your head and beneath your feet. Now they make a similar rainbow bridge around your body, holding your aura in place.

Now you and the Earth are one. The Rainbow Bridge of World Peace is real.

There is a science behind all of this. What exists at first in the imagination, visualized by enough people in a telepathic wave of love, will in time become a reality.

52 PRECEPTS of Cosmic History: Book of the Throne

The 52 precepts represent the most fundamental concepts of Cosmic History, understood as a system of thought. Since this system of thought has not been presented before on this planet, at least not in this manner, its presentation can be challenging.

The purpose of these precepts is to lessen the challenge by identifying these 52 key thoughts as points of meditation and reflection.

Copy these precepts on extra thick card stock. Then cut them out. Do the same with the cube. You may need to enlarge the cube template and then copy it onto card stock. The point is to create a cube container to hold the 52 precepts.

That way every day you can go to the cube and pull one of the precepts for daily study. Use the precept as a point of contemplation, meditation and reflection. Through these 52 precepts, the true essence of Cosmic History will be instilled in you like a seed to be germinated by your growing cosmic consciousness.

COSMIC HISTORY as ART

GOD

O you who would know
 First study the self ~ Forgetting the self remove the barrier between self and other.
 Cosmic History
 will then in-form you.
 A single pillar
 will not support a dome ~
 The Pillar of History must be replicated,
 first as Science
 then as Philosophy
 then as Religion.
 A dome cannot be built without a foundation.
 Let that foundation
 be Art,
 so that all knowledge
 may be applied in forms pleasing and informing to the senses.
 Let the mind
 be tamed
 and the body brought under control.
 Let prayer guide to God, and meditation to the clear light consciousness.
 From the center of the dome pull down the invisible
 rope of prophecy
 and revelation,
 then drop it through the hidden well of hermetic lore
 at the center of the foundation floor, and there below foundations unearthed, you will find the treasure
 you are looking for!
